Naked Lunch @ 50 Oliver C. G. Harris, Ian MacFadyen, 2009 Celebrating and analyzing a landmark novel that is aberrant obscene and blasphemous Naked Lunch was banned ridiculed and castigated on publication in 1959 and yet fifty years down the line it has lost nothing of its power to astonish and inspire A lacerating satire an exorcism of demons a grotesque cabinet of horrors and a landmark experiment in linguistic derangement it is a work of ecstatic excoriating laughter and great transcendent beauty The first book ever to take on William Burroughs masterpiece this critical collection brings together an international array of writers scholars musicians scientists and artists who cast new eyes on the writing and reception of Burroughs unique work Tracing its origins from Texas to Tangier from Mexico City to New York and Paris crossing time zones and cultures Naked Lunch 50 breaks new ground in understanding this most influential but elusive of texts Naked Lunch 50 includes studies of the text s manuscript and textual history of its origins in and creative debts to a range of specific locations of its reception in different societies over time and in relation to broader cultural artistic and personal histories Contributors discuss the novel s existence as a physical object in regard to both design and collectability the history of its critical reception its cultural importance in relation to censorship and visionary art its relationship to literary genres from science fiction to the horror film and its significance as a work prophetic of current trends in electronic culture and biology A series of introductory sections or Dossiers written by Ian MacFadyen provide glimpses of further horizons of research and reading while a set of endpapers by the artist Philip Taaffe offers a visual correlative to Burroughs extraordinary text
