Mortal World Poems:

Mortal World Deborah Pope, 1995 Sensuous longing grieving by turns the poems of Mortal World are love poems in the widest and yet most intimate sense They do not hold the world at a distance rather they taste see touch and savor the things of the world human connections chief among these These are poems about beginnings and endings written from the emotional center of experience In their evocative widening arc of emotion they trace a path from passionate awakening to ambiguous estrangement to the complicated griefs that wait at the heart of even the deepest love Still they finally reach toward reconciliation toward a reclaiming of the province of joy

Chinese Classical Poetry Stephen Owen, 2020-05-11 Over the centuries early Chinese classical poetry became embedded in a chronological account with great cultural resonance and came to be transmitted in versions accepted as authoritative But modern scholarship has questioned components of the account and cast doubt on the accuracy of received texts The result has destabilized the study of early Chinese poetry This study adopts a double approach to the poetry composed between the end of the first century B.C.E. and the third century C.E. First it examines extant material from this period synchronically as if it were not historically arranged with some poems attached to authors and some not By setting aside putative differences of author and genre Stephen Owen argues we can see that this was one poetry created from a shared poetic repertoire and compositional practices Second it considers how the scholars of the late fifth and early sixth centuries selected this material and reshaped it to produce the standard account of classical poetry As Owen shows early poetry comes to us through reproduction by those who knew the poem and transmitted it by musicians who performed it and by scribes and anthologists all of whom changed texts to suit their needs

Transition, Reception and Modernism R. Greaves, 2001-12-17 In this study of Yeats's poetry between 1902 and 1916 Greaves strongly reacts to the tendency in literary criticism to categorize Yeats's work as modernist

Instead Greaves offer a different way of looking at the transition in Yeats's work in this period by examining the poems in the context of Yeats life As a result the figure of Yeats the poet is resurrected from the exhaustive category of modernism and the complex connections between the figure of Yeats within the poems and its relationship with the Yeats who exists outside them is revealed    A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Browning Leslie Nathan Broughton, Benjamin Franklin Stelter,1925    Kaleidograph; a National Magazine of Poetry ,1929    A Paradise of English Poetry: Romance Henry Charles Beeching,1893    English Poetry of the Nineteenth Century George Roy Elliott,Norman Foerster,1923
