Financial Intermediaries Benton E. Gup,1980 Financial Services Law and Compliance in Australia Gail Pearson,2009-03-30 Up until the global credit crisis in 2008 Financial Services was the fastest growing sector of the Australian economy This growth has had profound implications for individuals corporations and government Following extensive review in the last part of the twentieth century Australia put in place an overarching system for regulating all financial services replacing a system that was based on separate regulation of products in individual industries Focusing on the implications of the new system for retail clients financial citizens Financial Services Law and Compliance in Australia provides a comprehensive account of the regulatory structure and a detailed analysis of the legislative framework including discussion of the new regulatory bodies the new licensing requirements for those wishing to enter the financial services market and the new obligations for those marketing or offering financial services to the public This is an essential resource for those working in and advising on financial services for students of financial services law and for anyone needing to understand this new regime in Australia

European Financial Regulation Veerle Colaert,Danny Busch,Thomas Incalza,2019-12-26 Mirroring the long established structure of the financial industry EU financial regulation as we know it today approaches banking insurance and investment services separately and often divergently In recent decades however the clear separation between financial sectors has gradually evaporated as business lines have converged across sectors and FinTech solutions have emerged which do not fit traditional sector boundaries As the contours of the traditional tripartition in the financial industry have faded the diverging regulatory and supervisory treatment of these sectors has become increasingly at odds with economic reality This book brings together insights developed by distinguished researchers and industry professionals in a series of articles analysing the main areas of EU financial regulation from a cross sectoral perspective For each specific research theme including prudential regulation corporate governance and conduct of business rules the similarities as well as gaps overlaps and unjustifiable differences between banking securities and insurance regulation are clearly presented and discussed This innovative research approach is aimed at informing lawmakers and policymakers on potential improvements to EU financial regulation whilst also supporting legal and compliance professionals applying the current framework or looking to streamline compliance processes

Risk in the Global Real Estate Market Mike C. I. Nwogugu,2012-01-26 Essential reading for professional investors risk managers regulators central bankers and real estate professionals Risk in the Global Real Estate Market International Risk Regulation Mechanism Design Foreclosures Title Systems and REITs takes an international look at the ways in which U S style constitutional laws financial laws and real estate laws in various countries affect global economics and risk and analyzes specific constraints that deter market development such as Asset Liability Matching inappropriate financial products land title systems inefficient constitutions and human biases The sub prime mortgage crisis that began around 2006 and the Global Financial Crisis of 2007 2010 disrupted the economies of various countries and exposed many of the psychological social and economic problems inherent in the legal risk infrastructure for mortgages land title systems REITs securitization and pensions In this remarkable new book Michael Nwogugu explains how these processes and statutes are unconstitutional and inefficient and how they influence demand for housing real estate prices retirement savings household wealth consumer disposable income marriage opportunities job markets crime and regional economic growth The resulting major economic and public health problems have continued to reduce the quality of life of nations and continue to cause permanent declines in wealth increases in crime and delinquency high divorce rates depression and inadequate job creation among other problems The book examines a range of fields including mechanism design psychology risk finance and corporate governance and emphasizes Constitutional economics as a distinct dimension of risk analysis Risk in the Global Real Estate Market makes a compelling case about how constitutional torts increase information asymmetry transaction costs agency problems and compliance costs as well as inefficiency in real estate transactions These problems the book argues are not unique to the United States but also affect Commonwealth countries and other nations that have developed regulations that are similar to or are based on U S commercial securities and or constitutional laws Risk in the Global Real Estate Market presents a novel analysis of the sub prime crisis that first began in 2006 the failure of securitization CMBS MBS markets the Global Financial Crisis and socio economic problems caused by traditional mortgages and securitization The book reveals that many of the statutes and processes that define mortgages foreclosures securitization and REITs in the United States and many common law countries and nations that have adopted American style real estate regulations are fundamentally unconstitutional and inefficient and have lasting negative effects on consumer psychology the demand for real estate price discovery in property markets economic growth and quality of life The book examines the nature of constitutional torts and property rights as the foundation for business transactions and economic growth within the context of risk regulation interstate commerce takings and legislation Risk in the Global Real Estate Market introduces new theories of consumer psychology and institutional dynamics in real estate transactions presents new theories of takings and also surveys psychology psychiatry studies based on data from various countries that confirm the harmful effects of mortgages securitization and foreclosures Using elements of mechanism design Michael Nwogugu develops new efficient financial products Mortgage Alternatives products and presents a policy framework for a unified Mortgage Alternatives market for the CEE CIS region and China He also explains why Asset Liability Matching hinders lending capital formation and risk management especially in developing countries
