Navigating Teacher Licensure Exams Emery Petchauer, 2018-12-12 Navigating Teacher Licensure Exams offers practical empirically sourced insights into the high stakes licensure exams required in most states for teacher certification. This unique resource foregrounds the experiences of diverse preservice teachers including teachers of color to understand how they organize their preparation efforts, overcome self-doubt and anxiety, and navigate the high-pressure space of this important testing event. By situating these exams within their social and psychological contexts, presenting real-life cases of success and failure, and confronting innate perceptions of standardized tests, this book provides essential and highly practical support for preservice teachers, teacher educators, and departmental resource libraries. Choosing a Mother Tongue

Corinne A. Seals, 2019-10-11 This book presents a sociocultural linguistic analysis of discourses of conflict as well as an examination of how linguistic identity is embodied, negotiated, and realized during a time of war. It provides new insights regarding multilingualism among Ukrainians in Ukraine and in the diaspora of New Zealand, the US, and Canada, and sheds light on the impact of the Russian-Ukrainian war on language attitudes among Ukrainians around the world. Crucially, it features an analysis of a new movement in Ukraine that developed during the course of the war, changing your mother tongue, which embodies what it is to renegotiate linguistic identity. It will be of value to researchers, faculty, and students in the areas of linguistics, Slavic studies, history, politics, anthropology, sociology, and international affairs, as well as those interested in Ukrainian affairs more generally. This book is open access under a CC BY-NC-ND licence. The Routledge

Handbook of Tourism and Indigenous Peoples Richard Butler, Anna Carr, 2024-08-30 The Routledge Handbook of Tourism and Indigenous Peoples presents an up-to-date critical and comprehensive overview of established and emerging themes around Indigeneity and connections between Indigenous peoples and tourism development. Offering socio-cultural perspectives and multidisciplinary insights from leading Indigenous and non-Indigenous scholars and tourism practitioners, the book explores contemporary issues, challenges, and trends. Organised into six sections, the handbook explores Indigenous community involvement in tourism, Indigenous entrepreneurship and innovation, Indigenous tourism policies and politics, and the complexities of colonialism and decolonisation issues. This text focuses on the active role that Indigenous peoples have in the industry and uses international case studies and experiences to explore the global context of Indigenous tourism. This handbook fills a notable gap by offering a critical and detailed understanding of the role of Indigenous practitioners and societies in tourism and how they interact within the tourism nexus. It will be of interest to scholars, students, tourism practitioners, and policymakers working in tourism development, studies, anthropology, human geography, and sociology.

Medicine C. Pierce Salguero,2019-11-26 Over the centuries Buddhist ideas have influenced medical thought and practice in complex and varied ways in diverse regions and cultures A companion to Buddhism and Medicine An Anthology of Premodern Sources this work presents a collection of modern and contemporary texts and conversations from across the Buddhist world dealing with the multifaceted relationship between Buddhism and medicine Covering the early modern period to the present this anthology focuses on the many ways Buddhism and medicine were shaped by the forces of colonialism science and globalization as well as ruptures and reconciliations between tradition and modernity Editor C Pierce Salguero and an international collection of scholars highlight diversity and innovation in the encounters between Buddhist and medical thought. The chapters contain a wide range of sources presenting different perspectives rooted in distinct times and places including translations of published and unpublished documents and transcripts of ethnographic interviews as well as accounts by missionaries and colonial authorities and materials from the contemporary United States and United Kingdom. Together these varied sources illustrate the many intersections of Buddhism and medicine in the past and how this nexus continues to be crucial in today's global context.

The White Bonus Tracie McMillan, 2024-04-23 A genre breaking work of journalism and memoir that tallies the cash benefit and cost of racism in America. This unflinching book from award winning investigative reporter Tracie McMillan examines what white privilege delivers in dollars and cents not only to white people of wealth but also to white people from the poor to the middle class. McMillan begins with her own downwardly mobile middle class family and takes us through a personal history marked with abuse, illness and poverty while training her journalistic eye on the benefits she saw from being white. McMillan then alternates her story with profiles of four other white subjects: millennials to baby boomers from across the United States. For readers of Stephanie Land's Maid, Heather McGhee's The Sum of Us and Clint Smith's How the Word Is Passed, McMillan brings groundbreaking insight into how and to what degree white racial privilege builds material advantage across class, time and place. Rather than analyzing racism as a thing that gives less to people of color, McMillan studies how it gives more to people who are white, including with uncommon honesty herself and how it takes so much from so many. The unforgettable follow up question thrums steadily through this book: Do white Americans believe that racism is worth what it costs all of us?

Parliament, 1884 Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire Edward Gibbon, 1910 Edward Gibbon's six volume History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire 1776-88 is among the most magnificent and ambitious narratives in European literature. Its subject is the fate of one of the world's greatest civilizations over thirteen centuries: its rulers, wars and society and the events that led to its disastrous collapse. Here in volumes three and four Gibbon vividly recounts the waves of barbarian invaders under commanders such as Alaric and Attila who overran and eventually destroyed the West. He then turns his gaze to events in the East where even the achievements of the Byzantine emperor Justinian and the campaigns of the brilliant military leader Belisarius could not conceal the fundamental weaknesses of their empire.
