Mother Crocodile:

Mother Crocodile Birago Diop, 1993 Because Mother Crocodile tells stories of the past the little crocodiles choose to believe she is crazy until almost too late they learn otherwise The Jaws of a Crocodile Edson Kudzai Mutuwira, 2014-05-27 It is about an orphan girl called Tambudzai Tambudzai stays with her grandmother The two live in abject poverty manifested by a monotonous diet of sadza thick maize meal porridge served with wild vegetables or mufushwa dried cowpeas leaves as relish everyday To break the monotony Tambudzai goes out fishing in a crocodile infested mighty Save River She catches a lot of fish She is attacked by a crocodile The crocodile drags her across a pool in the river and into a tunnel that leads to its nest The crocodile dumps into its nest what it thought was a corpse to feed its young ones The young crocodiles hungrily attack Tambudzai trying to tear off some flesh from her body Tambudzai recovers consciousness and kills all the young crocodiles She burrows her way out of the crocodile nest in a bid to escape On coming to check on its young ones the mother crocodile finds them all dead It follows Tambudzai's foot prints and crawls out of the nest through the same hole Tambudzai had made and used Once outside it sees Tambudzai and it goes after her to avenge for the death of its young ones Tambudzai tries to quicken her step but she cannot run fast because her leg was broken during the attack Tambudzai is saved by some dogs that were chasing a duiker The duiker passed between the crocodile and Tambudzai The dogs saw the crocodile and attacked it This gave Tambudzai a chance to escape from the jaws of the crocodile African Literature in French Dorothy S. Blair, 1976-11-18 This 1976 book provides both a historical survey and a critical analysis of the literature in French from West and Equatorial Africa Professor Blair begins by discussing the social educational and political influences which led to the formation of the Negritude movement and to a flowering of French African creative writing This historical approach is then complemented by a study of the different literary genres She traces the evolution of the first manifestations of literary activity in French by African writers the written folk tale fable and short story from the oral tradition of the indigenous culture and the eventual appearance of the novel with a legendary or historical theme The origins of French African drama are considered for the first time and the work of the minor poets analysed Finally Professor Blair attempts a definition of the French African novel and studies examples from three major periods from the 1930s onwards Secrets of the Paradox Micheal D. Winterburn, 2013-08-01 Far from merely recycling what we already know about certain paradoxes this book breaks entirely new ground by providing what everyone really wants solutions The king of all paradoxes is the Liar This statement is false If it is true it is false if it is false it is true which in its earliest form is over two and a half thousand years old Throughout all this time it has resisted every attempt to fully understand it This work finally unlocks the secrets of the Liar exposing principles patterns and formulae that have long lain hidden Several other important paradoxes also come under the logical searchlight and they too surrender their treasures Though paradoxes are inherently difficult this book approaches them in a clear and entertaining manner using plain English Secrets of the Paradox is written
