The Natural History of Make-Believe John Goldthwaite,1996-02-22 The Man in the Moon has dropped down to earth for a visit Over the hedge a rabbit in trousers is having a pipe with his evening paper Elsewhere Alice is passing through a looking glass Dorothy riding a tornado to Oz and Jack climbing a beanstalk to heaven To enter the world of children's literature is to journey to a realm where the miraculous and the mundane exist side by side a world that is at once recognizable and real and enchanted Many books have probed the myths and meanings of children's stories but Goldthwaite's Natural History is the first exclusively to survey the magic that lies at the heart of the literature From the dish that ran away with the spoon to the antics of Brer Rabbit and Dr Seuss's Cat in the Hat Goldthwaite celebrates the craft the invention and the inspired silliness that fix these tales in our minds from childhood and leave us in a state of wondering to know how these things can be Covering the three centuries from the fairy tales of Charles Perrault to Maurice Sendak's Where the Wild Things Are he gathers together all the major imaginative works of America Britain and Europe to show how the nursery rhyme the fairy tale and the beast fable have evolved into modern nonsense verse and fantasy Throughout he sheds important new light on such stock characters as the fool and the fairy godmother and on the sources of authors as diverse as Carlo Collodi Lewis Carroll and Beatrix Potter His bold claims will inspire some readers and outrage others He hails Pinocchio for example as the greatest of all children's books but he views C S Lewis's The Chronicles of Narnia as a parable that is not only murderously misogynistic but deeply blasphemous as well Fresh incisive and utterly original this rich literary history will be required reading for anyone who cares about children's books and their enduring influence on how we come to see the world

Favorite Nursery Rhymes from Mother Goose Scott Gustafson, 2014-10-14 IPPY Award Winner From nonsense to lessons learned these 45 rhymes include the very well known Itsy Bitsy Spider and the somewhat familiar Hickety Pickety My Black Hen The truly fantastic pictures speak more than a thousand words as artist Scott Gustafson riffs in paint on themes present and imagined in each verse Nursery rhymes are classic and so are some of the artist's interpretations But other paintings are surprises like an anthropomorphic baking bear a pelican sea captain and Peter Piper as a pug on two legs Welcome to a world where There Was a Crooked Man is not about a hunchbacked senior but rather a madcap double jointed dandy who might be crooked in more ways than one Jack Be Nimble is a leaping cricket and Yankee Doodle a fun loving chipmunk on a fullsize horse Scott Gustafson's unique style influenced by legendary book illustrators Arthur Rackham and N C Wyeth makes this a volume to be treasured by children and illustrated book lovers of all ages
