Brew North Ian,2012-03-23 Brew North tells the delightful story of Canada's national beverage Lively and informative Brew North puts beer lovers front and centre From cowboys quaffing India pale ale in a western saloon to modern day beer snobs sipping pints of cask brewed bitter and commenting on its chocolate and cigar box bass notes this is the story of the men and women who brewed served and drank the intoxicating malted beverage Charming illustrations reveal rustic taverns Victorian photographs give us that era's opulent saloons and modern colour shots help us understand the brewing process The book also illustrates how brewers have long been conscious of marketing and advertising creating unique bottles and ads giveaway trays and signs The Insect & Spider Collections of the World Ross H. Arnett, Jr., G. Allan Samuelson, Gordon M. Nishida, 2019-10-16 First published in 1993 completely rewritten this second edition includes a list of all 210 countries of the world and all of the islands with comments on the existence of insect and spider collections both public and private These listings are arranged alphabetically by country state province and city with private collections listed under the public collection with which they are registered Part II of the directory is an alphabetical list of the codes assigned to each of the collections described in Part I This list is also cross referenced to variations of the codes used in other works which will eliminate any confusion over this duplication This classic work provides a ready reference to all collections and is required by all insect and spider systematists *Report of the ... Mennonite Women in Canada Marlene Epp, 2008 Marlene Epp explores women's roles as prescribed and as lived within the contexts of immigration and settlement household and family church and organizational life work and education and in response to social trends and events She questions how Mennonites dictate women's place within the church family and community and how women collectively and individually actually behave Epp found that in virtually all aspects of women's lives there exists a contradiction between behavioural ideals and practicalities She also found that their responses to dictates about their proper place ranged from acceptance to rebellion and almost always unsettled a clear delineation of their roles Using diaries oral histories church histories genealogies and memoirs Epp has painstakingly pieced together a rich and fascinating story of Canadian Mennonite women that deserves to be read by women and men everywhere R sum de l diteur
