graph TD; A[OPENING spaces] --> B[critical pedagogy and RESISTANCE theory in composition]; C[JOE MARSHALL] --> B; D[HARDIN] --> B;

Opening Spaces Critical Pedagogy And Resistance Theory In Composition

Opening Spaces Critical Pedagogy And Resistance Theory In Composition:

Opening Spaces Joe Marshall Hardin, 2001-02-22 Calling for an empowerment of student authority and a realization of the constraints placed on critical teachers in the current educational climate Opening Spaces proposes a new way to theorize critical work in the writing classroom recognizing the importance and materiality of student writing and employing current ideas drawn from postcolonial theory cultural studies and postmodern social theory

Argument in Composition John Ramage, Micheal Callaway, 2009-09-14 ARGUMENT IN COMPOSITION provides access to a wide range of resources that bear on the teaching of writing and argument The ideas of major theorists of classical and contemporary rhetoric and argument from Aristotle to Burke Toulmin and Perelman are explained and elaborated especially as they inform pedagogies of argumentation and composition

The Lure of Literacy Michael Harker, 2014-12-03 readers of LiCS will find a strong argument for how understandings of literacy are fundamental to the work that compositionists do making this book useful not only to those doing similar work but also to be shared with colleagues who have less familiarity with literacy studies The Lure of Literacy presents a model of how theories of literacy can be applied to the debates that beset compositionists again and again offering a way out of their unproductive cycles Literacy in Composition The Lure of Literacy promises to transcend the stale and unproductive debate on freshman composition that has gripped English studies for more than a century It is the first book to chart the origin of the discussion from the early twentieth century to the advent of the New Literacy Studies Michael Harker recontextualizes proposals to abolish compulsory composition and reimagines pedagogical conditions in English studies in order to present a different model for first year writing This new model for compulsory composition programs focuses on students attitudes about composition and interrogates the very idea of literacy itself

The WPA Outcomes Statement—A Decade Later Nicholas N. Behm, Gregory R. Glau, 2014-09-12 The WPA Outcomes Statement A Decade Later examines the ways that the Council of Writing Program Administrators Outcomes Statement for First Year Composition has informed curricula generated programmatic institutional and disciplinary change and affected a disciplinary understanding of best practices in first year composition

Postcomposition Sidney I Dobrin, 2011-06-02 Leading a burgeoning self critical moment in composition studies and writing program administration Postcomposition is a fundamental reconsideration of the field that attempts to shift the focus away from pedagogy and writing subjects and toward writing itself In this forceful and reasoned critique of many of the primary tenets and widely accepted institutional structures of composition studies Sidney I Dobrin delivers a series of shocks to the system meant to disrupt the pedagogical imperative and move beyond the existing limits of the discipline Dobrin evaluates the current state of composition studies underscoring the difference between composition and writing and arguing that the field's focus on the administration of writing students and its historically imposed prohibition on theory greatly limit what can be understood about writing Instead he envisions a more significant approach to writing one that questions the field's conservative allegiance to subject and administration and reconsiders writing as spatial and ecological Using concepts from ecocomposition spatial theory network theory complexity theory and systems theory Postcomposition lays the groundwork for a networked theory of writing and advocates the abandonment of administration as a useful part of the field He also challenges the usefulness of rhetoric in writing studies showing how writing exceeds rhetoric Postcomposition is a detailed consideration of how posthumanism affects the field's understanding of subjectivity It also tears at the seams of the contingent labor problem As he articulates his own frustrations with the conservatism of composition studies and builds on previous critiques of the discipline Dobrin stages a courageous and inevitably polemical intellectual challenge to the entrenched ideas and assumptions that have defined composition studies

Developing and Sustaining Adult Learners Carrie J. Boden-McGill, Kathleen P. King, 2013-10-15 This is the second volume from the Adult Higher Education Alliance conference It addresses key issues in adult education featuring expanded presentations from scholars and practitioners The book offers insights for program planning design and teaching aiming to inspire new research and practice opportunities

Radical Relevance Laura Gray-Rosendale, Steven Rosendale, 2012-02-01 In an effort to rethink the left this interdisciplinary collection weaves together some of today's most powerful voices in contemporary left critical thought as they examine the fragmentation of American movements for social change evaluate what critical scholarship might contribute to the task of renewing or creating a more unified and efficacious left and explore the left's possibly inadequate dealings with many marginalized groups Representing a diverse range of theoretical perspectives within several textual disciplines the essays assess historical practical or speculative models for a whole left a left constituted by a broad range of complexly interwoven interests including issues of class environment gender sexuality disability race and ethnicity The book exemplifies the struggles of scholars to work toward a more shared agenda for social change

Collaborating(,) Literature(,) and Composition Frank Gaughan, Peter H. Khost, 2007 The disciplines of English and composition seem particularly prone to crisis driven proclamations our kids don't read the great works or they don't read at all or they can't write Crisis talk notwithstanding educators are left to theorize and practice ways to teach reading and writing with intelligence compassion and integrity However it often seems that theoretical formulations do not sufficiently explain their practicable applications and practicable discussions too rarely rise above the level of swapping recipes sharing assignments that work well in one context but may not in another Therefore the editors of this volume submit this collection of essays that strives to harmonize the all too often discordant qualities of theory and practice Each co-authored essay illustrates and analyzes various classroom based strategies for productive collaboration between literature and composition This collection envisions a reciprocal to composing literature literaturing composition which entails living through literature as Louise Rosenblatt has it This process regards the literary text as a medium for creative action so that one reads not to criticize so much as to imagine new compositional possibilities The eight essays in this collection are divided into four sections which span topics that include textuality and critical pedagogy argumentation and hybrid genres student engagement and popular culture and materiality and assessment Publisher's website Writing Environments Sidney I. Dobrin, Christopher J. Keller, 2005-02-10 Including interviews with several of America's leading environmental writers this volume addresses the intersections between writing and nature Community College Freshman Composition Instructors' Choices of Readings Kandace Margretta Knudson, 2005 Don't Call it that Sidney I. Dobrin, 2005 This volume addresses the role of the English professor in teaching graduate students in the how to teach writing introductory courses The essays argue that far from a simple introduction about how to teach writing the courses often serve as an introduction to composition theory to research methodologies to pedagogical theory and to the histories of composition studies as a discipline A New World of Writers Elaine Freedman Fredericksen, 2003 Most secondary school college and university students no longer fit into the traditional mold Although they are from a variety of ethnic language and social backgrounds each with different needs writing can provide a key to success for them all A New World of Writers offers teaching methodologies that can be adapted to these new and changing student populations enabling them to approach writing tasks with confidence and enthusiasm Beyond Postprocess Sidney I. Dobrin, J.A. Rice, Michael Vastola, 2011-06-30 Beyond Postprocess offers a vigorous provocative discussion of postprocess theory in its contemporary profile Fueled by something like a fundamental refusal to see writing as self-evident, reducible and easily explicable the contributors rethink postprocess suggesting that there is no easily defined moment or method that could be called postprocess Instead each contribution to this collection provides a unique and important example of what work beyond postprocess could be Since postprocess theory in writing studies first challenged traditional conceptions of writing and the subject who writes developments there have continued to push theorists of writing in a number of promising theoretical directions Spaces for writing have arisen that radically alter ideological notions of space rational thinking intellectual property and politics and epistemologies and new media digital and visual rhetorics have increasingly complicated the scene as well Contributors to Beyond Postprocess reconsider writing and writing studies through posthumanism ecology new media materiality multimodal and digital writing institutional critique and postpedagogy Through the lively and provocative character of these essays Beyond Postprocess aims to provide a critical site for nothing less than the broad reevaluation of what it means to study writing today Its polyvocal considerations and conclusions invest the volume with a unique potential to describe not what that field of study should be but what it has the capacity to create The central purpose of Beyond Postprocess is to unleash this creative potential From Hip-Hop to Hyperlinks Joanna N. Paull, 2008 From Hip Hop to Hyperlinks is a text designed to invigorate composition teachers' TM classroom approaches for getting students to better understand American culture's The contributors share their strategies from their classrooms including such exciting topics as food comedy music technology and photography Readers may use this collection in a pragmatic way or as inspiration for developing and revising their current cultural curriculum In general these essays trace semester-long course structures to allow readers to see how one assignment leads into the next often offering student writing samples along the way There is not another collection out there quite like this one Ideal for graduate students learning strategies for teaching new teachers seeking some effective strategies or even seasoned professors looking for new teaching ideas From Hip Hop to Hyperlinks is an exciting addition to any composition instructor TM s collection of teaching texts Going North Thinking West Irvin Peckham,2010-10-15 Ultimately Going North Thinking West advocates a collaborative investigation of students worlds as the first step in a successful writing pedagogy It is an argument for re orienting pedagogy toward service to students rather than transforming them Book Jacket Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2003-04 Bibliographic Guide to Education ,2001 lists publications cataloged by Teachers College Columbia University supplemented by The Research Libraries of The New York Public Library American Book Publishing Record ,2001 JAC ,2007 Voice as Process Lizbeth Bryant,2005 Voice as Process looks at how student writers use the voices of home and community to develop an academic voice Through a thorough textual analysis of student portfolios copious interviews and ethnographic research Lizbeth Bryant identifies the activities that writers perform as they manipulate the voices they bring to class and those they encounter there into a web of constructed voices that can be adjusted to meet the needs of any writing situation
