Opening Israel's Scriptures Ellen F. Davis,2019-06-03 Opening Israel s Scriptures is a collection of thirty six essays on the Hebrew Bible from Genesis to Chronicles which gives powerful insight into the complexity and inexhaustibility of the Hebrew Scriptures as a theological resource Based on more than two decades of lectures on Old Testament interpretation Ellen F Davis offers a selective yet comprehensive guide to the core concepts literary patterns storylines and theological perspectives that are central to Israel s Scriptures Underlying the whole study is the primary assumption that each book of the canon has literary and theological coherence though not uniformity In both her close readings of individual texts and in her broad demonstrations of the coherence of whole books Davis models the best practices of contemporary exegesis integrating the insights of contemporary scholars with those of classical theological resources in Jewish and Christian traditions Throughout she keeps an eye to the experiences and concerns of contemporary readers showing through multiple examples that the critical interpretation of texts is provisional open ended work a collaboration across generations and cultures Ultimately what she offers is an invitation into the more spacious world that the Bible discloses which challenges ordinary conceptions of how things really are

The Great Open Dance Jon Paul Sydnor,2024-04-24 The Great Open Dance offers a progressive Christian theology that endorses contemporary ideals environmental protection economic justice racial reconciliation interreligious peace gender equality and LGBTQ celebration Just as importantly this book provides a theology of progress an interpretation of Christian faith as ever changing and ever advancing into God s imagination Faith demands change because Jesus of Nazareth started a movement not a tradition He preached about a new world the Kingdom of God and invited his followers to work toward the divine vision of universal flourishing This vision includes all and excludes none Since we have not yet achieved the world that Jesus describes we must continue to progress The energizing impulse of this progress is the Trinity Abba Jesus and Sophia three persons united by love into one perfect community God is fundamentally relational and humankind made in the image of God is relational as a result We are inextricably entwined with one another sharing a common purpose and a common destiny In this vision we find abundant life by practicing agape the universal unconditional love that Abba extends Jesus reveals and Sophia inspires
