Opera Unveiled 2005:

Opera Unveiled Desirée Mays, 2005 Law and Opera Filippo Annunziata, Giorgio Fabio Colombo, 2018-01-30 This book explores the various connections between Law and Opera providing a comprehensive multinational and multidisciplinary with approaches from jurists philosophers musicologist historians resource on the subject Further it makes a valuable contribution to studies on law and the humanities While for example the relationship between law and literature has been extensively researched the relationship between Law and Opera remains largely overlooked The book approaches the topic from three perspectives in three main sections Law in Opera Law on Opera and Law around Opera The ^ABallad of John Latouche Howard Pollack, 2017-10-06 In his short life the Virginia born John Treville Latouche 1914 56 made a profound mark on America s musical theater as a lyricist book writer and librettist His signature achievements include theatrical works with composers Earl Robinson Vernon Duke Duke Ellington Jerome Moross and Leonard Bernstein The Cambridge Companion to Opera Studies Nicholas Till, 2012-10-18 With its powerful combination of music and theatre opera is one of the most complex and yet immediate of all art forms Once opera was studied only as a stepchild of musicology but in the past two decades opera studies have experienced an explosion of energy with the introduction of new approaches drawn from disciplines such as social anthropology and performance studies to media theory genre theory gender studies and reception history Written by leading scholars in opera studies today this Companion offers a wide ranging guide to a rapidly expanding field of study and new ways of thinking about a rich and intriguing art form placing opera back at the centre of our understanding of Western culture over the past 400 years This book gives lovers of opera as well as those studying the subject a comprehensive approach to the many facets of opera in the past and today Queering the Migrant in Contemporary European Cinema James S. Williams, 2020-08-27 This exciting and original volume offers the first comprehensive critical study of the recent profusion of European films and television addressing sexual migration and seeking to capture the lives and experiences of LGBTIQ migrants and refugees Queering the Migrant in Contemporary European Cinema argues that embodied cinematic representations of the queer migrant even if at times highly ambivalent and contentious constitute an urgent new repertoire of queer subjectivities and socialities that serve to undermine the patrolled borders of gender and sexuality nationhood and citizenship and refigure or queer fixed notions and universals of identity like Europe and national belonging based on the model of the family At stake ethically and politically is the elaboration of a transborder consciousness and aesthetics that counters the homonationalist xenophobic and homo trans phobic representation of the migrant to Europe figure rooted in the toxic binaries of othering the good vs bad migrant host vs guest indigenous vs foreigner Bringing together 16 contributors working in different national film traditions and embracing multiple theoretical perspectives this powerful and timely collection will be of major interest to both specialists and students in Film and Media Studies Gender and Queer Studies Migration Mobility Studies Cultural Studies and Aesthetics

Understanding the Women of Mozart's Operas Kristi Brown-Montesano, 2007-02-07 Is The Marriage of Figaro just about Figaro Is Don Giovanni's story the only one or even the most interesting one in the opera that bears his name For generations of critics historians and directors it's Mozart's men who have mattered most Too often the female characters have been understood from the male protagonist's point of view or simply reduced on stage and in print to paper cutouts from the age of the powdered wig and the tightly cinched corset It's time to give Mozart's women and Mozart's multi-dimensional portrayals of feminine character their due In this lively book Kristi Brown Montesano offers a detailed exploration of the female roles in Mozart's four most frequently performed operas Le nozze di Figaro Don Giovanni Cos fan tutte and Die Zauberflöte Each chapter takes a close look at the music libretto text literary sources and historical factors that give shape to a character re-evaluating common assumptions and proposing fresh interpretations Brown Montesano views each character as the subject of a story not merely the object of a hero's narrative or the stock figure of convention From amiable Zerlina to the awesome Queen of the Night to calculating Despina all of Mozart's women have something unique to say These readings also tackle provocative social political and cultural issues which are used in the operas to define positive and negative images of femininity revenge power seduction resistance autonomy sacrifice faithfulness class maternity and sisterhood Keenly aware of the historical gap between the origins of these works and contemporary culture Brown Montesano discusses how attitudes about such concepts past and current influence our appreciation of these fascinating representations of women
