Operation Tuscaloosa 2nd Battalion 5th Marines At An Hoa:

Operation Tuscaloosa John J. Culbertson, 1997 In 1967 Operation Tuscaloosa sent 2nd Battalion 5th Marines into the hostile Song Thu Bon valley Their mission to exterminate the Viet Cong But a sandbar island in the river quickly became an island of death for the Marines As point man for the lead squad of Hotel Company 2 5 John Culbertson tells the full bloody story of the battle

A Sniper in the Arizona John Culbertson, 1999-03-01 Morning was always a welcome sight to us It meant two things The first was that we were still alive In 1967 death was the constant companion of the Marines of Hotel Company 2 5 as they patrolled the paddy dikes mud and mountains of the Arizona Territory southwest of Da Nang But John Culbertson and most of the rest of Hotel Company were the same lean fighting Marines who had survived the carnage of Operation Tuscaloosa Hotel s grunts walked over the enemy not around him In graphic terms John Culbertson describes the daily dangerous life of a soldier fighting in a country where the enemy was frequently indistinguishable from the allies fought tenaciously and thought nothing of using civilians as a shield Though he was one of the top marksmen in 1st Marine Division Sniper School in Da Nang in March 1967 a class of just eighteen chosen from the division s twenty thousand Marines Culbertson knew that against the VC and the NVA good training and experience could carry you just so far But his company s mission was to find and engage the enemy whatever the price This riveting bloody first person account offers a stark testimony to the stuff U S Marines are made of

Late Thoughts on an Old War Philip D. Beidler, 2010-01-25 Philip D Beidler who served as an armored cavalry platoon leader in Vietnam sees less and less of the hard won perspective of the common soldier in what America has made of that war Each passing year he says dulls our sense of immediacy about Vietnam s costs opening wider the temptation to make it something more necessary neatly contained and justifiable than it should ever become Here Beidler draws on deeply personal memories to reflect on the war s lingering aftereffects and the shallow evasive ways we deal with them Beidler brings back the war he knew in chapters on its vocabulary music literature and film His catalog of soldier slang reveals how finely a tour of Vietnam could hone one s sense of absurdity His survey of the war s pop hits looks for meaning in the soundtrack many veterans still hear in their heads Beidler also explains how Viet Pulp literature about snipers tunnel rats and other hard core types has pushed aside masterpieces like Duong Thu Huong s Without a Name Likewise we learn why the movie The Deer Hunter doesn t get it about Vietnam but why Platoon and We Were Soldiers sometimes nearly do As Beidler takes measure of his own wartime politics and morals he ponders the divergent careers of such figures as William Calley the army lieutenant whose name is synonymous with the civilian massacre at My Lai and an old friend poet John Balaban a conscientious objector who performed alternative duty in Vietnam as a schoolteacher and hospital worker Beidler also looks at Vietnam alongside other conflicts including the war on international terrorism He once hoped he says that Vietnam had fractured our sense of providential destiny and geopolitical invincibility but now realizes with dismay that those myths are still with us Americans
