Ophelias World:

The Afterlife of Ophelia Deanne Williams, 2012-04-09 This collection of new essays is the first to explore the rich afterlife of one of Shakespeare's most recognizable characters. With contributions from an international group of established and emerging scholars, The Afterlife of Ophelia moves beyond the confines of existing scholarship and forges new lines of inquiry beyond Shakespeare studies.

Mad Studies Reader Bradley Lewis, Alisha Ali, Jazmine Russell, 2024-09-30 The last few years have brought increased writings from activists, artists, scholars, and concerned clinicians that cast a critical and constructive eye on psychiatry, mental health care, and the cultural relations of mental difference. With particular focus on accounts of lived experience and readings that cover issues of epistemic and social injustice in mental health discourse, the Mad Studies Reader brings together voices that advance anti-sanist approaches to scholarship, practice, art, and activism in this realm. Beyond offering a theoretical and historical overview of mad studies, this Reader draws on the perspectives, voices, and experiences of artists, mad pride activists, humanities and social science scholars, and critical clinicians to explore the complexity of mental life and mental difference. Voices from these groups confront and challenge standard approaches to mental difference. They advance new structures of meaning and practice that are inclusive of those who have been systematically subjugated and promote anti-sanist approaches to counter inequalities, prejudices, and discrimination. Confronting modes of psychological oppression and the power of a few to interpret and define difference for so many, the Mad Studies Reader asks the critical question of how these approaches may be reconsidered, resisted, and reclaimed. This collection will be of interest to mental health clinicians, students, and scholars of the arts, humanities, and social sciences, and anyone who has been affected by mental difference directly or indirectly, who is curious to explore new perspectives.

The World's Biggest Book of Brainteasers & Logic Puzzles Norman D. Willis, Paul Sloane, Des Machale, Michael A. DiSpezio, Kurt Smith, 2006 What a bargain! At more than 700 puzzle-packed pages, this huge value-priced collection should keep any solver happy and busy for a very long time. It contains brain-busting challenges of almost every type: math, logic problems for the numerically inclined, absolutely amazing lateral thinking conundrums, really great critical thinking bafflers, and mind-boggling word puzzles. Here's just a small sample of what's inside: The 22nd and 24th presidents of the United States had the same mother and the same father but were not brothers. How could this be so? Stumped? That's because it's one man: Grover Cleveland, who was reelected after skipping a term. And that's just an easy warm-up.

All the World's a Stage Mary A. M. Marks, 1879

The Academy, 1905

Subjects on the World's Stage David G. Allen, Robert A. White, 1995-06 In this collection, eighteen scholars offer various readings on British literature of the Middle Ages and the Renaissance. Although the period covered ranges from the thirteenth through the seventeenth centuries, the essays are tied together by a common interest in one of three topics: poetic personae, dramatic production, and the influence of social context upon authors or dramatists. Common to these topics is the crucial point of contact between an artist and society that prompts the literary imagination to respond either with the creation of a new character or with the demonstration of change in an old one BOOK
