Stories and Poems Rudyard Kipling,2015-10-08 Hear and attend and listen Rudyard Kipling is a supreme master of the short story in English and a poet of brilliant gifts His energy and inventiveness poured themselves into every kind of tale from the bleakest of fables to the richest of comedies and he illuminated every aspect of human behaviour of which he was a fascinated and sometimes appalled observer This generous selection of stories and poems first published in the acclaimed Oxford Authors series covers the full range of Kipling's career from the youthful volumes that brought him fame as the chronicler of British India to the bittersweet fruits of age and bereavement in the aftermath of the First World War It includes stories such as The Man who would be King Mrs Bathurst and Mary Postgate and poems from Barrack Room Ballads and other collections In his introduction and notes Daniel Karlin addresses the controversial political engagement of Kipling's art and the sources of its imaginative power Searching for the Hudson Bombers James R. Stevens,2004 This exciting and unusual World War Two book contains the biographies of young men from the United States and Commonwealth Countries who flew through enemy infested skies in a civilian passenger plane known as the Hudson Bomber The author portrays not only flyers but their families as they face the unfolding fates of their youngsters flying in Royal Air Force Coastal Command Squadrons Much of the book is written from primary research material personal diaries log books a large number of photographs and anxious letters home to parents and wives and friends Searching For The Hudson Bombers rings loudly with authenticity of how World War Two impacted people at an intimate and personal level Flying duties of these patriotic youth from America Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa are portrayed in a range of activities from over the North Sea to the Mediterranean The Hudson air crews bomb shipping and search in all kinds of nasty weather for submarines cover convoys and look for downed air craft Sub themed in the text are the disappointing activities of politicians corporations financial institutions and religious bureaucracy One will not find much grand strategy as planned by Presidents Prime Ministers and Generals in Searching For The Hudson Bombers This is a book about unheralded flyers who risked their lives each time they went aloft in a less than reliable aircraft the Hudson Bomber This intriguing and intensely researched

Martin Sloop, 2016-10-27 Dr Sloop and her husband began their lifelong dedication to the mountain people when they rode horseback into the remote hill region of North Carolina in 1909. The conditions they encountered were shockingly primitive. The people had neither doctors nor schools and were suspicious of medicine and larnin Electricity and running water were unheard of roads were rough mountain paths and the diet consisted of hog meat greens and grease. The main industry was moon shining Dr Sloop declared a personal war on moonshiners tracking down hidden still with a reluctant sheriff in tow. She fought against child marriages and in a region where girls often married at the age of fourteen. With the help of the mountain people she reinvigorated the weaving trade built a church and a modern well equipped hospital. Her spirited support of education resulted in a modern twenty five building school. Saunders, 1996 At the very peak of the summer tourist season the peaceful routine of a beautiful seaside community in North Carolina is shattered by the brutal murder of a vacationing family. Police lieutenant Devon Walker a relative new comer to the Outer Banks a refugee from the gritty inner city streets and police department of Jersey City New Jersey hundreds of miles and worlds away from the scenic North Carolina coast is the chief investigator in charge of finding the murderer. Viewed with suspicion by the native Bankers who hold the reins of power and who want instant arrests Walker must struggle to galvanize his investigation while fending off charges of incompetence. Despite the best efforts of Walker and his two assistants Sgt Tony Camps a black ex football player and Cpl Dee Onslow a no nonsense female deputy the trail goes cold. Getting needed help by calling in an old favor from an ex colleague who is now an FBI special agent in the Northeast Walker learns of two equally vicious and peculiarly similar murders that occurred in other parts of the country. Through painstaking police work Camps and Onslow piece together the disparate bits of information and discover that the Outer Banks are a common link albeit tenuous between the victims. Former street cop Walker comes to understand that while the tideland marshes and beaches possess a serene beauty they also conceal lethal dangers for the unwary reflections ultimately providing him with critical insights into the mind of the killer he pursues. BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by
