Myth Reality:

Myth and Reality Mircea Eliade, 1968      Myth, Symbol and Reality Alan Olson, 1982-03 Do myths and symbols have anything at all to tell us about reality Or do they simply deserve to be relegated to the realm of fantastic unreality The essayists in this volume deploy all the critical tools available in the task of taking myth and symbol seriously They are not willing to consign the use of the symbolic to the logician or to relinquish the mythical to the comparative anthropologist as something of historical interest only Instead they strive for that difficult position that is guided by criticism but is still open to wonder in the face of what myth and symbol offer in terms of enrichment meaning and self transcendence      DIY Sex and Relationship Therapy Lori Boul, 2012-11-06 This book provides a comprehensive professional tool kit that will help you Learn how to resolve sexual and relationship problems Discover new techniques to improve your relationship Practise skills that can protect your relationship Put romance fun and passion back into your life Drawing on her wide professional experience Dr Lori Boul provides authentic therapy techniques in an accessible easy to follow step by step layout that can be practised effectively at home Full of practical exercises and innovative techniques DIY Therapy will give you the skills you need to improve your relationship without the expense of face to face counselling You will be guided through a programme of relationship and sex therapy sessions that will help you overcome your difficulties recapture fun and romance and ensure the changes you make will truly last      Myth Thomas Albert Sebeok, 1955      Myths About Doing Business in China H. Chee, C. West, 2004-10-20 China is rapidly becoming an economic superpower yet has a very different business culture that is often misunderstood outside of China This can result in costly financial and strategic errors This book confronts the myths about China and Chinese business practice and gives the reader a clear understanding of the culture and how to engage with it successfully      Masada Myth Nachman Ben-Yehuda, 1996-01-01 In 73 A D legend has it 960 Jewish rebels under siege in the ancient desert fortress of Masada committed suicide rather than surrender to a Roman legion Recorded in only one historical source the story of Masada was obscure for centuries In The Masada Myth Israeli sociologist Nachman Ben Yehuda tracks the process by which Masada became an ideological symbol for the State of Israel the dramatic subject of movies and miniseries a shrine venerated by generations of Zionists and Israeli soldiers and the most profitable tourist attraction in modern Israel Ben Yehuda describes how after nearly 1800 years the long complex and unsubstantiated narrative of Josephus Flavius was edited and augmented in the twentieth century to form a simple and powerful myth of heroism He looks at the ways this new mythical narrative of Masada was created promoted and maintained by pre state Jewish underground organizations the Israeli army archaeological teams mass media youth movements textbooks the tourist industry and the arts He discusses the various organizations and movements that created the Masada experience usually a ritual trek through the Judean desert followed by a climb to the fortress and a dramatic reading of the Masada story and how it changed over decades from a Zionist pilgrimage to a tourist destination Placing the story in a larger historical sociological and psychological context Ben Yehuda draws upon theories of collective memory and mythmaking to analyze Masada's crucial role in the nation building process of modern Israel and the formation of a new Jewish identity An expert on deviance and social control Ben Yehuda looks in particular at how and why a military failure and an enigmatic troubling case of mass suicide in conflict with Judaism's teachings were reconstructed and fabricated as a heroic tale

The Myths of Reality Simon Danser, 2005 The Myths of Reality reveals how reality is culturally constructed in an ever continuing process from mythic fragments transmitted by the mass media and adapted through face to face and Internet conversations

Myths and Mythical Spaces Claudia Lichnofsky, Enriketa Pandelejmoni, Darko Stojanov, 2017-12-04 This volume addresses textbooks written in the Albanian language and in use in Albania Kosovo Macedonia and Serbia Political myths and mythical spaces play a key role in shaping processes of identity building concepts of self and other and ideas pertaining to the location of the self and nation within a post conflict context The Albanian case is particularly interesting because the majority of Albanians live outside the borders of Albania despite the existence of the nation state which gives rise to fascinating complexities regarding the shaping of national identities and myths surrounding concepts of self and other What textbooks teach is always of political interest as they represent society's intentions for its next generation This renders identity building processes via textbooks in this context a particularly fascinating topic for research here examined through the lens of myths and mythical spaces
