Vickery, 1966 Myth and Literature John B. Vickery, 1966 Myth and the Creative Process Jacob E. Nyenhuis, 2003 In a century that was dominated by science and technology the wide ranging artwork of Michael Ayrton 1921 75 is truly a tribute to the enduring power of Greek myth Theorists often discuss the link between myth and creativity but rarely does one see this connection manifested so provocatively over the course of an artist s career Fittingly this British sculptor painter author filmmaker and maze designer was inspired by the story of the archetypal craftsman Daedalus father of Icarus and maker of the labyrinth that imprisoned the Minotaur and produced over 800 works that in turn enhance the myth s significance Highlighting the interaction between myth and artist word and image Jacob Nyenhuis here presents a catalogue of these works one that will enlighten Ayrton s British following while introducing him to an American audience A nonconformist who challenged Picasso s reign over the art world Ayrton found in Daedalus a richly complex story of captivity and escape ingenuity and creativity flight and fall success and failure Ayrton s own journey into the labyrinth set him on a torturous path through life and into the psyche he came to identify himself not only with the craftsman but also with the Minotaur representative of the bestial nature hidden within all of us He ultimately created a new visual syntax that expanded the meaning of the labyrinth in disturbing ways for the twentieth century The intensity of Ayrton s journey is conveyed in this beautifully produced volume comprising biography critical analysis historical context and an annotated catalogue of the works many appearing in color Mythology David Adams Leeming, 1998-05-28 What makes something mythic What do mythic events and narratives have to do with us In Mythology David Leeming offers an unusual and effective approach to the subject of mythology by stressing universal themes through myths of many cultures This anthology collects a wide array of narrative texts from the Bible to English literature to interpretations by Joseph Campbell C G Jung and others which illustrate how myths serve whole societies in our universal search for meaning Leeming illustrates the various stages or rites of passage of the mythic universal hero from birth to childhood through trial and quest death descent rebirth and ascension The arrangement of texts by themes such as Childhood Initiation and Divine Signs The Descent to the Underworld and Resurrection and Rebirth strip mythic characters of their many national and cultural masks to reveal their archetypal aspects Real figures including Jesus and Mohammed are also included underlining the theory that myths are real and can be applied to real life This edition is updated to include additional heroine myths as well as Navajo Indonesian Indian Chinese and African tales      Paperbacks in Print ,1980
