Mythos Italien:

Mythos Italien Martin Luchsinger,1996 Italian Modernism Luca Somigli,Mario Moroni,2004-12-15 Italian Modernism was written in response to the need for an historiographic and theoretical reconsideration of the concepts of Decadentismo and the avant garde within the Italian critical tradition Focussing on the confrontation between these concepts and the broader notion of international modernism the essays in this important collection seek to understand this complex phase of literary and artistic practices as a response to the epistemes of philosophical and scientific modernity at the end of the nineteenth century and in the first three decades of the twentieth Intellectually provocative this collection is the first attempt in the field of Italian Studies at a comprehensive account of Italian literary modernism Each contributor documents how previous critical categories employed to account for the literary artistic and cultural experiences of the period have provided only partial and inadequate descriptions preventing a fuller understanding of the complexities and the interrelations among the cultural phenomena of the time Electronic Format Disclaimer Images removed at the request of the rights holder

Heimat Goes Mobile Gabriele Eichmanns,Yvonne Franke,2013-07-26 Heimat has been a crucial concept for the construction of identity in the German speaking world Seemingly impossible to translate Heimat has served to describe feelings of comfort and belonging that are traditionally tied to a specific location be it one s place of birth or childhood home Yet in a world characterized by ever increasing global influences and a fast paced lifestyle the notion of Heimat as a static inflexible and rather exclusionary idea is becoming more and more obsolete and is giving way to new hybrid Heimat forms that encompass traditional as well as foreign elements Thus Heimat can no longer be perceived as a solely German concept but is rapidly merging binary opposites shaping Germans understandings of home in new and unexpected ways The nine essays in this anthology explore these hybrid forms of Heimat in our globalized world from multiple angles Some take a look at traditional genres of Heimat like the Heimatfilm or Heimatroman and examine how contemporary filmmakers Tom Tykwer Fatih Ak n and authors Hans Ulrich Treichel Hugo Loetscher have appropriated those genres to arrive at an updated version of Heimat in the 21st century Other articles focus on gendered readings of Heimat and show how Mo Asumang s Roots Germania and Ula St ckl s Das alte Lied emancipate the term from its nurturing motherly qualities and instead provide women including women of color with powerful agency Finally contributors explore Heimat in the regional and historical contexts of East and West Germany Switzerland and Romania In the process this anthology inscribes itself into the ongoing discourse on Heimat and enriches it by showing how the current notion of Heimat transcends traditional boundaries of nation culture and race Who's who in Italy ,1988 The Italian Renaissance in the German Historical Imagination Martin A.
