My War Diary:

My War Diary 1914-1918 Ethel M. My War Diary: Israel in Lebanon. Translated by Hillel Schenker Dov Yermiya,1983 My War Diary Sgt. George H. Warren, My war diary ,1917 My War Diary Mary King Waddington,2012-12 The Great War in France a lady s intimate view Mary King Waddington was born in New York City She married a French statesman William Henry Waddington his parents were naturalised citizens of France and he went on to became prime minister of his country Mary was a prolific diarist and her account of her experiences as the wife of a diplomat ran to several volumes and were well regarded and quite popular at the time At the outbreak of the First World War Mary was living in Paris Hers was the war the civilians knew and her diary gives the reader interesting insights into the domestic life of the French nation during the conflict As Helen Prince writes in the introduction to this book one fact is gossip two related facts are history So we read of the two grandsons who discover a German skull how lawns were given over to growing potatoes we experience railway station goodbyes and many other poignant events and scenes which will vividly bring this time of tragedy back to life Once again the reader will discover the indomitable spirit that many women displayed in times of adversity whilst caring for children the poor the dispossessed attending to the wounded and other charitable acts Leonaur editions are newly typeset and are not facsimiles each title is available in softcover and hardback with dustjacket our hardbacks are cloth bound and feature gold foil lettering on their spines and fabric head and tail bands MY WAR DIARY, 1918 MARY KING. WADDINGTON,2019 My war diary Mary King Waddington,1918 My War Diary, 1918 (Classic Reprint) Mary King Waddington,2015-07-06 Excerpt from My War Diary 1918 This simple every day record of the experiences through which one French family has lived since August 1914 may seem at first sight a charming but not very important contribution to the literature of the war But if we accept

Henry Cabot Lodge's dictum that one fact is gossip and that two related facts are history we shall realise in closing the book how much history we have absorbed in a Jourdain-esque kind of ignorance. The cure at Mareuil the little grandsons finding a German skull the lawn sacrificed to potatoes the roses rising triumphant over utilitarianism the good byes at the railroad stations the Christmas tree the friendly talks all these may be trifles in one way but they are making history. After all we know more about the Lilliputians than about the Brobdingnagians and they are more illustrative of Swift. This story of the past war months is like a rich fabric so cunningly woven that the rare and restrained touches of emotion stand out in brilliant relief against the neutral no that word has fallen into disrepute against the sober tones of the daily background. My War Diary (Classic Reprint) Mary King Waddington, 2018-01-31. Excerpt from My War Diary To those of us honoured by the author's friend ship this book means a great deal. We have seen her brilliant in the world tender and gay at home helpful and widely charitable in her many duties while all the time we divine that the mother's heart holds always the pride and the ache of which she writes so seldom.
