Mythological Deliberations:

Mythological Deliberations A. Piatigorski, 2012-11-12 The thoughts of Alexander Piatigorski on comparative myths as delivered in a series of lectures for the Jordan Lectures in Comparative Religion at the School of Oriental and African Studies London in May 1992    Myth and Mythmaking Julia Leslie, 2014-02-04 Essays focusing on some of the ways in which myths have been made and made to function in the rich cultural history of India from the dawn of history through to the present day

Beyond Phenomenology Gavin Flood, 1999-08-01 This book argues that the understanding and explanation of religion is always historically contingent Grounded in the work of Bakhtin and Ricoeur Flood positions the academic study of religion within contemporary debates in the social sciences and humanities concerning modernity and postmodernity particularly contested issues regarding truth and knowledge It challenges the view that religions are privileged epistemic objects argues for the importance of metatheory and presents an argument for the dialogical nature of inquiry The study of religion should begin with language and culture and this shift in emphasis to the philosophy of the sign in hermeneutics and away from the philosophy of consciousness in phenomenology has far reaching implications It means a new ethic of practice which is sensitive to the power relationship in any epistemology it opens the door to feminist and postcolonial critique and it provides a methodology which allows for the interface between religious studies theology and the social sciences    Psychoanalytic

Explorations into the Primal Relationship in Japan and India Osamu Kitayama, Jhuma Basak, 2025-07-10 In this landmark collaboration Osamu Kitayama and Jhuma Basak chronicle their long standing collaboration and cultural exchange to survey the importance of familial relationships in Japan and India exploring primal relations through a cross cultural psychoanalytic lens Divided into three sections Psychoanalytic Explorations into the Primal Relationship in Japan and India looks at each country's perception of parenthood and approach to raising children in turn before concluding in an illuminating dialogue between the two authors Kitayama explores the maternal figure within the mother child relationship with a focus on the mother son dyad as well as relationships between parents He considers in depth how Japanese culture can often exclude what is perceived as alien delving into its rich tapestry of folklore to understand underlying mental scripts which can shape collective perceptions societal norms and expectations each of which can pose an issue to healthy familial relationships Basak's response draws from Indian socio cultural and mythological contexts as well as clinical applications to provide psychoanalytic insight into the stark differences and similarities between attitudes in Japan India and the eastern culture at large Both authors join together to highlight different child rearing practises such as co sleeping and how they can shape human sexuality subjectivity Challenging the standardisation of the Oedipal myth the book draws from literary and clinical examples in Japan and India to invite the reader into another world of parenting style and another idiom of psychoanalysis Uniquely positioned to develop understanding of how psychoanalysis has developed in non Western countries this book is an essential resource for psychoanalysts in training and in practice    The Cultural Origins of the Socialist

Realist Aesthetic, 1890-1934 Irina Gutkin, 1999 The past fifteen years have seen an important shift in the way scholars look at socialist realism Where it was seen as a straitjacket imposed by the Stalinist regime it is now understood to be an aesthetic movement in its own right one whose internal logic had to be understood if it was to be criticized International specialists remain divided however over the provenance of Soviet aesthetic ideology particularly over the role of the avant garde in its emergence In The Cultural Origins of the Socialist Realist Aesthetic Irina Gutkin brings together the best work written on the subject to argue that socialist realism encompassed a philosophical worldview that marked thinking in the USSR on all levels political social and linguistic Using a wealth of diverse cultural material Gutkin traces the emergence of the central tenants of socialist realist theory from Symbolism and Futurism through the 1920s and 1930s

K2, Quest of the Gods Ralf Ellis, The Great Pyramid in the Himalaya In Thoth Architect of the Universe Ralf discovered evidence for megalithic maps But if these megalithic maps are to be of any use in a quest for the mythical Hall of Records then they need to be a little more detailed than a simple representation of continents Luckily the shaft angles inside the Great Pyramid can refine these maps down to just a few tens of meters And so Ralf embarked on a long trek into the high Himalaya to see what lay at the heart of the Giza map Strangely enough what he found there was a giant snow white pyramid aligned with the cardinal points with a causeway aligned at 14 from its base exactly the same as the Great Pyramid itself Sequel to Thoth Architect of the Universe v3 6

Speaking with Pictures Roma Chatterji, 2020-11-29 Speaking with Pictures offers a path breaking exploration of visual narratives in folk art It foregrounds folk art's engagement with modernity by re looking at its figurative modes and the ways in which they are embedded in mythic thought The book discusses folk art as a contemporary phenomenon which is a part of a complex visual culture where the essence of tradition is best captured in a new form or medium Each chapter picks up a theme that moves between the local and the global thereby attempting to problematise the stereotypical view of folk artists as carriers of timeless tradition The volume provides an ethnographic account of innovations through a detailed analysis of the scroll painting tradition of the patuas of West Bengal and the Pardhan Gond style of Madhya Pradesh highlighting some recent attempts at inter medium exchange in storytelling The book will interest those in visual and popular culture in anthropology sociology literary criticism and folklore It will also be of immense value to art historians museologists curators and NGOs working in media and communication apart from those with a general interest in folk art
