It presents an important complementary extension to Marketing to the Affluent William D Danko PhD coauthor of The Millionaire Next Door The Affluent Consumer Ronald D. Michman, Edward M. Mazze, 2006-09-30. By any measure the affluent sector is growing exponentially and is far more diverse in terms of ethnicity, education, location and professional background than any time in the past. This market represents lucrative opportunities for companies that understand how these customers think, act and make purchasing decisions. Applying primary research including demographic and economic data and expertise developed from decades of studying, teaching and consulting in marketing and consumer behavior. Ronald Michman and Edward Mazze present a comprehensive approach to analyzing the affluent consumer and creating, promoting and selling innovative products and services to them. Illustrating their principles through dozens of examples including Armani, Mercedes-Benz, Brooks Brothers, Neiman Marcus, Merrill Lynch, Tiffany and even discounters such as Target and Wal-Mart. The authors deconstruct how a complex market segment works. Dispelling popular myths and misconceptions about the composition and behavior of this segment, they provide not only a practical guide for marketers and students of marketing but a fascinating glimpse into a culture driven by materialism, status and aspirations to luxury. By any measure the affluent sector is growing exponentially and is far more diverse in terms of ethnicity, education, location and professional background than at any time in the past. In 2004 there were 8.2 million households in the United States with net worth over 1 million, excluding primary residence. Meanwhile, between 1995 and 2001 the number of families filing tax returns for income exceeding 200,000 doubled. This market represents lucrative opportunities for companies that understand how these consumers think, act and make purchasing decisions. The Art of Selling to the Affluent Matt Oechsli, 2014-01-10.
