Urban Planning in Europe Peter Newman, Andy

Thornley, 2002-09-11 Urban planning is undergoing a period of transformation across Europe with a major trend towards increased urban competition national deregulation and greater private sector influence. Urban Planning in Europe is the first comprehensive analysis of the influence of countries is developed presenting the similarities and differences of each country's national planning system. The authors use detailed case studies to explore planning policies in a range of European cities and discuss the social and environmental objectives that influence today's urban planner. Urban Planning in Europe is an essential guide to contemporary European planning projects and highlighting opportunities for innovation which contain vital lessons for the future of urban decision making

Urban Process and Power Peter Ambrose, 2023-05-31 Urban Process and Power has two chief aims. Firstly it analyses and explains a century of the production and reproduction of the urban environment in which most of us live. Secondly the book focuses on recent changes in the control of these processes and the ideology that has brought these changes about. Immense disparities exist between the best and the worst urban areas in Britain. Why do these differences arise and how are they perpetuated? The author argues that the growth of such inequality is linked to questions of accountability and the increasing erosion of a democratic principle in the urban process
