Lupertz has never believed in the purely representational purpose of art but in his own words has always been searching for the potential picture and thus doesn't feel bound by any one style Precisely for this reason he has succeeded in freely creating works from a vast fund of artistic and historic cultural material devising coded paintings that bear his emphatic signature and which are themselves redolent of a mature and energetic freedom which is in turn regarded by many a generation of artists as exemplary In this way younger artists such as Peter Doig Tal R or Thomas Houseago have been avid fans for some time now The exhibition and the comprehensive accompanying catalogue set out to investigate the large gesture as well as to explore Lupertz's conscious play with the role of the artist duly presenting his multifaceted oeuvre and his passion and intellectual rigour in a large selection of 150 paintings and sculptures including a number of early works which still have the capacity to surprise one today They range from the early examples of the dithyrambic anti abstract painting from the 1960s with their proximity to pop art to the intensive engagement with the mythological and classical canon of themes during the past few decades all of which is impressively accompanied by an extensive section containing photographic documents The retrospective exhibition held at the Kunst und Ausstellungshalle der Bundesrepublik Deutschland Bonn builds on a successful series of exhibitions featuring leading German painters over the past twenty years placing Lupertz alongside artists such as Gerhard Richter Sigmar Polke and Georg Baselitz Exhibition Kunst und
