A Scattering of Seeds Lindalee Tracey, 1999 A SCATTERING OF SEEDS THE CREATION OF CANADA is based on a series of documentary films exploring the dreams darings and determination of Canada s first immigrants It is a journey into the hopes and triumphs of the many groups who built a nation In this wonderful and moving book Lindalee Tracey has taken the best stories from the first two seasons of this award winning series which has been airing on the History Channel and in French on Radio Canada's RDI. This book draws on a rich archive of home movies, photographs, letters, home diaries, and oral history. The chapters provide personal portraits celebrating the diversity of the first families who arrived during Canada's formative years of nation building. From the early French, Ukrainian, and Irish settlers to the more recent Chinese, Japanese, Finnish, and Sikh immigrants, this kaleidoscope of images and experiences is unparalleled. There is conflict, oppression, and the occasional sinking of hearts, yet the resolve and character of these immigrants is what built our nation and allows it to grow. At the root of each story is the instinct to contribute something, to leave something to mark the efforts of life. Who we were before we became who we are is our lasting legacy, and our greatest teacher. A SCATTERING OF SEEDS demonstrates a profound understanding of community that continues to shape a country still in transition. Canadian Book Review Annual, 1996

Canadian Children's Literature, 1996 The Mining West Richard E. Lingenfelter, 2003. This two-volume set cites books, pamphlets, maps, music, directories, and other published materials, excluding materials from technical and popular magazines and newspapers on the history of mining in the American and Canadian West. Topics covered include prospecting, mining rushes, and camps, and mining finance, labor, technology, law, literature, and lore. The initial portion provides general information on mining and metallurgical technology. The subsequent regional sections are subdivided into refined historical studies, raw materials, fictional and poetic treatments, and bibliographical guides to further materials. Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc. Portland, OR. booknews.com Canadian Books in Print, 2000 Children's Book Review Index Gary C. Tarbert, 1999 Everybody's Favourites Arlene Perly Rae, 1997. From Bill Cameron's beautiful reflection on his early love for The Wind in the Willows to Jane Urquhart's thoughts on the importance of L. M. Montgomery's Emily books, to a budding young author from Peter Gzowski's thrill of recognition in the pages of Catcher in the Rye to the youthful longings that drove Sheila McCarthy to the popular Cherry Ames series, from Tim Wynne Jones's wry memories of the moment the Hardy Boys let him down to Robert Bateman's early discovery of his vocation through the works of Ernest Thompson Seton, Everybody's Favourites shows us the extraordinary influence and exhilaration of early reading experiences. BC Studies, 1996

History of the Carlock Family and Adventures of Pioneer Americans Marion Pomeroy Carlock, 1929 Book Review Index, 2003. Vols. 8-10 of the 1965-1984 master cumulation constitute a title index. Index de Périodiques Canadiens, 1997 Ladies in the Laboratory III Mary R. S. Creese, Thomas M. Creese, 2010-02-08. Published in 1998, Ladies in the Laboratory provided a systematic survey and comparison of the work of 19th-century American and British women in scientific research. A companion volume published in 2004 focused on women scientists from Western Europe. In this third volume, author Mary R. S. Creese expands her scope to include the contributions of 19th and early 20th-century women of South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, and Canada. The women whose lives and work are discussed here range from natural history collectors and scientific illustrators of the early and mid-years of the 19th century to the first generation of graduates of the new colonial colleges and universities Rarely acknowledged in publications of the British and European specialists the contributions of these women nonetheless formed a significant part of the natural history information about extensive previously unknown regions and their products Rather than a biographical dictionary or a collection of self contained essays on individuals from many time periods Ladies in the Laboratory III is a connected narrative tied into the wider framework of 19th century science and education A well organized blend of individual life stories and quantitative information this volume is for everyone interested in the story of women s participation in 19th century science The stories of these women make for fascinating reading and serve as a valuable source for the student of women s and colonial history Quill & Quire ,1996
