The Martial Adventures Of Henry And Me [Illustrated Edition] William Allen White, 2014-08-15 Includes 15 cartoon illustrations This highly humorous account of two self confessed short fat bald middle aged inland Americans who decide to join the war effort all the way from Wichita having left their jobs as journalists As they go to New York to start their sea journey eastward they start to find out that their life is going to be much more arduous than they initially thought In our pockets we hold commissions from the American Red Cross These commissions are sending us to Europe as inspectors with a view to publicity later one to speak for the Red Cross the other to write for it in America We have been told by the Red Cross authorities in Washington that we shall go immediately to the front in France and that it will be necessary to have the protective colouring of some kind of an army uniform The curtain rises on a store in 43rd Street in New York perhaps the Palace or the Hub or the Model or the Army and Navy where a young man is trying to sell us a khaki coat and shirt and trousers for 17 48 And at that it seems a lot of money to pay for a rig which can be worn at most only two months But we compromise by making him throw in another shirt and a service hat and we take the lot for 17 93 and go away holding in low esteem the pride pomp and circumstance of glorious war as exemplified by these military duds In our hearts as we go off at R U E will be seen a hatred for uniforms as such and particularly for phoney uniforms that mean nothing and cost 18 00 in particular The Martial Adventures of Henry and Me William Allen
