Martin Buber's Life and Work Maurice S. Friedman,1982      Martin Buber's Life and Work Maurice S. Friedman,1988

Martin Buber's Life and Work is a complete reprint of Maurice Friedman's monumental three volume biography. Friedman covers Buber's life from his work on I and Thou to the challenges of Nazi Germany and prewar Palestine. He charts Buber's activities on behalf of Jewish-Arab rapprochement, his dialogue with Dag Hammarskjold, and comments on the philosopher's last years, his death, and his legacy to world Jewry.      Martin Buber's Life and Work Maurice Friedman,1988-01-01

Encounter on the Narrow Ridge Maurice Friedman,1991 Traces the life of the renowned Jewish religious philosopher, discussing his youth, his education, in turn of the century Vienna, his Zionism, and the impact of world politics on his life and thought.      Martin Buber's life and work ; the middle years 1923-1945 Maurice S. Friedman,1983

Martin Buber Maurice S. Friedman,2003-09-02 Martin Buber The Life of Dialogue the first study in any language to provide a complete overview of Buber's thought remains the definitive guide to the full range of his work and the starting point for all modern Buber scholarship. Maurice S. Friedman reveals the implications of Buber's thought for theory of knowledge, education, philosophy, myth, history, and Judaic and Christian belief. This fully revised and expanded fourth edition includes a new preface by the author, an expanded bibliography incorporating new Buber scholarship, and two new appendices in the form of essays on Buber's influence on Emmanuel Levinas and Mikhail Bakhtin.

Martin Buber and the Human Sciences Maurice Friedman,2012-02-01 The specific focus of Martin Buber and the Human Sciences is dialogue as the foundation of and integrating factor in the human sciences using dialogue in the special sense which Buber has made famous: mutuality, presentness, openness, meeting the other in his or her uniqueness, and not just as a content for one's own thought categories and knowing as deriving in the first instance from mutual contact rather than knowledge of a subject about an object. By the human sciences, the authors editors mean material that can be meaningfully approached in a dialogic way, hence the humanities, education, psychology, speech, communication, anthropology, history, sociology, and economics. The essays in Martin Buber and the Human Sciences demonstrate that thirty years after Buber's death, his influence is still resonating in many countries and in many fields.

The Church in an Age of Secular Mysticisms (Ministry in a Secular Age Book #6) Andrew Root,2023-10-10 Post-Christian life and society do not eliminate a desire for the transcendent; rather, they create an environment for new and divergent spiritual communities and practices to flourish. We are flooded with spiritualities that appeal to human desires for nonreligious personal transformation. But many fail to deliver because they fall into the trap of the self. In the last book of the Ministry in a Secular Age series, leading practical theologian Andrew Root shows the differences between these spiritualities and authentic Christian transformation. He explores the dangers of following or adapting these reigning mysticisms and explains why the self has become so important yet so burdened with guilt and how we should think about both To help us understand our confusing cultural landscape he maps spiritualities using twenty of the best memoirs from 2015 to 2020 in which secular mystics promote their mystical and transformational pathways Root concludes with a more excellent way even a mysticism centered on the theology of the cross that pastors and leaders can use to form their own imaginations and practices The Jewish State Yoram

Hazony,2009-04-30 In what may be the most controversial book on Zionism and Israel published in the last twenty years Yoram Hazony graphically portrays the cultural and political revolt against Israel s status as the Jewish state Examining ideological trends in academia literature media law the armed forces and the foreign policy establishment Hazony contends that Israelis are preparing themselves for the final break with the Jewish past and the Jewish future In a dramatic new reading of Israeli history Hazony uncovers the story of how Martin Buber Gershom Scholem Hannah Arendt and other German Jewish intellectuals bitterly fought against the establishment of Israel and later used the Hebrew University as a base for deposing David Ben Gurion and discrediting Labor Zionism The Jewish State is a must read for anyone concerned with Israel s present and future The "central Person" in Martin Buber's Political Theory Dan Avnon,1990
