Gottfried Keller's Martin Salander Kenneth Arnold Halwas, 1953 Bankruptcy and Debt Collection in Liberal Capitalism Mischa Suter, 2021-06-02 Drawing on perspectives from anthropology and social theory this book explores the quotidian routines of debt collection in nineteenth century capitalism It focuses on Switzerland an exemplary case of liberal rule Debt collection and bankruptcy relied on received practices until they were standardized in a Swiss federal law in 1889 The vast array of these practices was summarized by the idiomatic Swiss legal term Rechtstrieb literally law drive Analyzing these forms of summary justice opens a window to the makeshift economies and the contested political imaginaries of nineteenth century everyday life Ultimately the book advances an empirically grounded and theoretically informed history of quotidian legal practices in the everyday economy it is an argument for studying capitalism from the bottom up Bd.

transformed how people experienced place In response to increased industrialization and urbanization the expansion of international capitalism and the extension of railway and other travel networks the sense of being connected to a specific place gave way to an unsettling sense of displacement Out of Place analyzes the works of three major representatives of German Realism Wilhelm Raabe Theodor Fontane and Gottfried Keller within this historical context It situates the perceived loss of place evident in their texts within the contemporary discourse of housing and urban reform but also views such discourse through the lens of twentieth century theories of place Informed by both phenomenological Heidegger and Casey as well as Marxist Deleuze Guattari and Benjamin approaches to place John B Lyon highlights the struggle to address issues of place and space that reappear today in debates about environmentalism transnationalism globalization and regionalism
