Martyrs And Metaphors:

The Background And Contents Of Paul's Cultic Atonement Metaphors Stephen Finlan, 2004 This examination of Gentile and Jewish religious and literary descriptions of sacrificial and expulsion rituals provides a useful background to the study of Paul's metaphorical use of sacrifice and scapegoat to characterize the significance of the death of Jesus In addition to offering an overview of Paul's use of cultic metaphors and an assessment of Paul's synthesis of martyrology and cultic metaphor this work shows how Paul uses still other metaphors acquittal reconciliation adoption to picture the beneficial after effects of that death Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org Martyrs and Metaphors Colm Tóibín, 1987-01-01 The Roots of Metaphor Norman Kreitman, 2019-05-23 First published in 1999 this study begins with a review of basic biological functions stressing the importance to the organism of various kinds of information The biology of information must consider how the brain reacts to new as contrasted with expected inputs these differences are discussed chiefly in relation to language In language processing predictability is of prime importance but to clarify what this entails it is necessary to consider just how our concepts are organized Personal construct theory throws considerable light on this question but is less informative about fantasy which requires separate exploration The main chapter focuses on the origins and interpretation of metaphor in which quite disparate concepts are united but which we understand nevertheless Existing theories of metaphor are unsatisfactory but personal construct theory again helps resolve the psychological linguistic issues Finally the question is raised as to why a good metaphor produces a response which is recognizably aesthetic in character and its implications for our aesthetic responses to other art forms are explored The Last Times Joseph Augustus Seiss, 1878 Corpus Approaches to Critical Metaphor Analysis Jonathan Charteris-Black, 2004-02-17 In a stimulating and novel approach this book explains why metaphors are persuasive suggesting that they are ideologically effective because they are cognitively plausible and evoke an emotional response Critical Metaphor Analysis is then developed in a series of corpus based studies in which analysis of collocations provides insight into the cognitive motivation and expressive connotation of metaphor By unifying traditional and cognitive semantic with pragmatic approaches the reader becomes aware of the importance of metaphor in persuasive language Robert Chester's "Loves martyr, or Rosalins complaint" (1601) with its supplement Robert Chester, 1876 Cyber Warfare and Terrorism: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2020-03-06 Through the rise of big data and the internet of things terrorist organizations have been freed from geographic and logistical confines and now have more power than ever before to strike the average citizen directly at home This coupled with the inherently asymmetrical nature of cyberwarfare which grants great advantage to the attacker has created an unprecedented national security risk that both governments and their citizens are woefully ill prepared to face Examining cyber warfare and terrorism through a critical and academic perspective can lead to a better understanding of its foundations and implications

The Construction of Martyrdom in the English Catholic Community, 1535-1603 Anne Dillon,2017-03-02 Between 1535 and 1603 more than 200 English Catholics were executed by the State for treason Drawing on an extraordinary range of contemporary sources Anne Dillon examines the ways in which these executions were transformed into acts of martyrdom Utilizing the reports from the gallows the Catholic community in England and in exile created a wide range of manuscripts and texts in which they employed the concept of martyrdom for propaganda purposes in continental Europe and for shaping Catholic identity and encouraging recusancy at home Particularly potent was the derivation of images from these texts which provided visual means of conveying the symbol of the martyr Through an examination of the work of Richard Verstegan and the martyr murals of the English College in Rome the book explores the influence of these images on the Counter Reformation Church the Jesuits and the political intentions of English Catholics in exile and those of their hosts The Construction of Martyrdom in the English Catholic Community 1535 1603 shows how Verstegan used the English martyrs in his Theatrum crudelitatum of 1587 to rally support from Catholics on the Continent for a Spanish invasion of England to overthrow Elizabeth I and her government The English martyr was Anne Dillon argues as much a construction of international political rhetoric as it was of English religious and political debate an international Catholic banner around which Catholic European powers were urged to rally
