The Art of Medieval French Romance Douglas Kelly, 1992-04-15 Douglas Kelly provides a comprehensive and historically valid analysis of the art of medieval French romance as the romancers themselves describe it He focuses on well known writers such as Chr tien de Troyes and Marie de France and also draws on a wide range of other sources prose romances non Arthurian romances thirteenth century verse romances and variant versions from the later Middle Ages Kelly is the first scholar to present the art of medieval romance to a modern audience through the interventions and comments of medieval writers themselves The book begins by examining the difficulties scholars perceive in medieval literature problems such as source and intertextuality structure in its manifold modern meanings and character psychology and individuality These issues frame Kelly s identification and discussion of all the known authorial interventions on the art and craft of romance Kelly s careful reconstruction of the art of romance based on the records left by the romancers themselves will be an invaluable resource and guide for all medievalists
