The Routledge Handbook of Language Learning and Technology Fiona Farr, Liam Murray, 2016-02-26 The exponential growth and development of modern technologies in all sectors has made it increasingly difficult for students teachers and teacher educators to know which technologies to employ and how best to take advantage of them The Routledge Handbook of Language Learning and Technology brings together experts in a number of key areas of development and change and opens the field of language learning by exploring the pedagogical importance of technological innovation The handbook is structured around six themes historical and conceptual contexts core issues interactive and collaborative technologies for language learning corpora and data driven learning gaming and language learning purpose designed language learning resources Led by fundamental concepts theories and frameworks from language learning and teaching research rather than by specific technologies this handbook is the essential reference for all students teachers and researchers of Language Learning and TESOL Those working in the areas of Applied Linguistics Education and Media Studies will also find this a valuable book

Electronic Discourse in Language Learning and Language Teaching Lee B. Abraham, Lawrence Williams, 2009 New technologies are constantly transforming traditional notions of language use and literacy in online communication environments While previous research has provided a foundation for understanding the use of new technologies in instructed second language environments few studies have investigated new literacies and electronic discourse beyond the classroom setting This volume seeks to address this gap by providing corpus based and empirical studies of electronic discourse analyzing social and linguistic variation as well as communicative practices in chat discussion forums blogs and podcasts Several chapters also examine the assessment and integration of new literacies This volume will serve as a valuable resource for researchers teachers and students interested in exploring electronic discourse and new literacies in language learning and teaching The Modern Language Review, 1922

Education Reimagined: The Impact of Advanced Technologies on Learning Mohammad Khalil, Mohammed Saqr, Sonsoles López-Pernas, Isabel Hilliger, 2024-12-18 The last decade has seen significant progress in technology particularly in the fields of Artificial Intelligence and machine learning which have had a profound impact on numerous industries including education The integration of technology in education has fundamentally altered the landscape of learning where data becomes a crucial component to provide insights into for example how students learn when and where additional support is needed Employing educational data is proving to be a catalyst for innovation in education opening up new possibilities for students and educators alike The focus of this Research Topic is to explore the impact of recent technological innovations and advances such as AI AI powered Chatbots Learning Analytics Virtual and Augmented Reality and remote and virtual labs on different education systems both from the educational and the psychological perspective The scope is twofold on the one hand examining the use of these advanced technologies in learning and teaching activities and on the other hand teaching students about these technologies and understanding the impact of including them in new education policies and curricula including teaching of AI data science analytics and the ethical implications of data The Research Topic seeks to provide insightful and thought provoking perspectives on how technology is being utilized to enhance the learning experience for students of all ages Both in higher education and K12 education and their transition to higher education By gathering experts in psychology education and technology this Research Topic aims to present research findings and best practices and to stimulate discussions on the role of technology in shaping the future of education The ultimate objective is to inspire innovation and to improve the education of future generations through advanced technologies

Competencies for English-medium University Teaching Ruth Breeze,Carmen Sancho Guinda,2016-10-06 As English gains prominence as the language of higher education across the world many institutions and lecturers are becoming increasingly concerned with the implications of this trend for the quality of university teaching and learning With an innovative approach in both theme and scope this book addresses four major competencies that are essential to ensure the effectiveness of English medium higher education creativity critical thinking autonomy and motivation It offers an integrated perspective both theoretical and practical which defines these competences from different angles within ELT and Applied Linguistics while also exploring their points of contact and applications to classroom routines This approach is intended to provide practical guidance and inspiration in the form of pedagogical proposals examples of teaching practice and cutting edge research by scholars and university teachers from all over the world To that end a leading specialist in the field introduces each of the four competencies explaining concepts accessibly and synthetically exposing false myths presenting an updated state of the art and opening windows for future studies These introductions are followed by practitioner chapters written by teachers and scholars from different cultures and university contexts who reflect on their experience and or research and share effective procedures and suggestions for the university class with English as a vehicle for instruction
