Modern marketing system

Marketing management orientation

- The production concept (consumers will favor products that are available and highly affordable) Focus on improving production and distribution efficiency
- The product concept (consumers will favor products that offer the most in quality, performance, and innovative features) Focus on continuous product improvement
- The selling concept (consumers will not buy enough of the firm's product unless it undertakes a large-scale selling and promotion effort)
- The marketing concept (achieving organizational goals depends on knowing the needs and wants of target markets and delivering the desired satisfactions better than competitors do)
- The societal marketing concept (a company consider consumers' wants, company's requirements, consumers' and society's long-run interest)

Steps in strategic planning (pg 41-52)

- The process of developing and maintain a strategic fit between the organization's goals and capabilities and its changing marketing opportunities
 - 1. Define the company mission
 - A clear, market-oriented mission statement defines the business in terms of its goals in the larger environment
 - Fit the market environment, distinctive competencies and motivating
 - 2. Set company objectives and goals
 - Mission leads to a hierarchy of objectives, including business and marketing
 - translated into detailed supporting objectives for each level of management
 - 3. Design the business portfolio
 - Identify key businesses that make up the company
 - Analyze its current business portfolio, and deciding which much support each SBU deserve
 - Using Boston Consulting Group (BCG) Approach (pg 46), Stars – Cash Cows – Question marks – Dogs, problems include time consuming and expensive, not focused on future planning and difficulty in defining SBU and measurement of variables
 - Shape the future portfolio. Develop strategies for growth and downsizing, use product/market expansion grid (pg 48)
- Market penetration for existing products in existing markets
Product development for new products in existing markets
Market development for existing products in new markets
