Marriage Contract:

Do We Need a Marriage Contract? Michael G. Cochrane, 2010-05-14 Congratulations You've decided to get married. It's a wonderful time but there's more to think about than just the perfect wedding and honeymoon. Marriage is more complicated than it used to be. People are marrying later in life and perhaps for the second or third time. Often they are bringing more assets and more liabilities into the relationship, blending children from previous relationships and generally facing all kinds of new challenges. Marriage contracts, wills and Powers of Attorney are all valuable ways to set your expectations in advance. Do We Need a Marriage Contract? is written in clear nontechnical language and includes real life examples based on Canadian cases. Cochrane includes a sample marriage contract to address the critical issues you need to be aware of including: Protection of assets brought into the marriage, The special practical and financial concerns of blending children into new families, Family pressure to have a marriage contract, Business pressure to have a marriage contract, How to have a discussion with your partner and not spoil the romance, How marriage contracts work with your wills and Powers of Attorney, How to work in a cost effective way with a lawyer, How to avoid the relationship mistakes that lead to divorce. This is your future together. Get it right from the very beginning. Take the advice of Michael Cochrane, a lawyer with more than 30 years of experience in family law and carefully consider the numerous issues that can affect your relationship. The Marriage Contract Lenore J. Weitzman, 1981 The Marriage Contract Henry Brooke, 1996 The Marriage Contract Ruth Ann Nordin, 2018-04-21 On her wedding day Patricia Cotter, the widowed Lady of Pruett, signed a contract agreeing to the following: 1. She would never look at her husband's face. 2. She would never remove the sheets covering the mirrors. 3. She would never ask her husband about his past. In return for doing these things, she will have a secure place for her unborn child and her worries will be over. She has nothing to lose by agreeing to her husband's terms. Yes, she's heard the rumors about Mr. Stephen Bachman. He was said to have killed his first wife, though there is no proof condemning him of the crime. He is aloof and never leaves his manor. He is practically a prisoner in his own home. But as she gets to know him, she begins to believe her husband isn't the beast everyone's made him out to be. There just might be a gentleman worth loving beneath his hard exterior. The question is: can she get him to let go of the past so he can open himself up to the possibility of a fairytale romance? The Wedding Contract Kelly Jamison, 2011-07-15 Marriage Contract Party of the First Part: Jake McClellan. I promise to hold Laura when she cries at silly movies, pour tea for Molly and her friends at tea parties and be the official family mistletoe hanger. From this day forward, Molly is my daughter and Laura is my wife, friend and lover. Party of the Second Part: Laura Halstead. I promise to laugh at Jake's jokes, ride shotgun on his tandem bicycle and eat the fish he catches, though I refuse to clean them. I gladly welcome him into my house, into my bed and into my life. Both Parties do hereby decree that this contract is based solely on convenience and not on matters of the heart. A most convenient arrangement until they fell in love. The Jewish Marriage Contract Louis M. Epstein, 2004 Epstein, Louis M. The Jewish Marriage Contract A
