Summa Theologica, Part III (Tertia Pars) Thomas Aquinas, 2021-12-12

Summa Theologica Part III Tertia Pars Thomas Aquinas The Summa Theologiae Latin Compendium of Theology or Theological Compendium also subsequently called the Summa Theologica or simply the Summa written 1265-1274 is the best known work of Thomas Aquinas c. 1225-1274 and although unfinished one of the classics of the history of philosophy and one of the most influential works of Western literature. It is intended as a manual for beginners in theology and a compendium of all of the main theological teachings of the Church. It presents the reasoning for almost all points of Christian theology in the West. The Summa's topics follow a cycle: the existence of God, Creation, Man, Man's purpose, Christ, the Sacraments, and back to God (courtesy of wikipedia.com). This is part 3 Tertia Pars. The way which leads to God is Christ, the theme of part III. It can be asserted that the incarnation was absolutely necessary. The Unio between the Logos and the human nature is a relation between the divine and the human nature which comes about by both natures being brought together in the one person of the Logos. An incarnation can be spoken of only in the sense that the human nature began to be in the eternal hypostasis of the divine nature. So Christ is unum since his human nature lacks the hypostasis. The person of the Logos accordingly has assumed the impersonal human nature and in such way that the assumption of the soul became the means for the assumption of the body. This union with the human soul is the gratia unionis which leads to the impartation of the gratia habitualis from the Logos to the human nature. Thereby all human potentialities are made perfect in Jesus. Besides the perfections given by the vision of God which Jesus enjoyed from the beginning he receives all others by the gratia habitualis.

In writing it I have kept my own students constantly in mind and have endeavored to set forth those principles of the law which I thought they ought to know in such a manner as to be most readily grasped by them. In all cases my aim has been to present and emphasize principles rather than the details of their application such details being supplied only so far as seemed desirable for purposes of illustration. In the apportionment of space among the several branches of the subject I have acted according to my best judgment as to the relative importance to the student of each topic in the present state of the law in some instances devoting to a particular topic more and in others less space relatively than is done in other works written specially for the practitioner.
