Carlson, 237 MICH 105 (1926) ,1926 87 Ethnomusicology of the Flathead Indians Alan Merriam,2017-09-29 All people in no matter what culture must be able to place their music firmly in the context of the totality of their beliefs experiences and activities for without such ties music cannot exist This means that there must be a body of theory connected with any music system not necessarily a theory of the structure of music sound

although that may be present as well but rather a theory of what music is what it does and how it is coordinated with the total environment both natural and cultural in which human beings move The Flathead Indians of Western Montana just over 26 000 in number as of the 2000 census inhabit a reservation consisting of 632 516 acres of land in the Jocko and Flathead Valleys and the Camas Prairie country which lie roughly between Evaro and Kalispell Montana The reservation is bounded on the east by the Mission Range on the west by the Cabinet National Forest on the south by the Lolo National Forest and on the north by an arbitrary line approximately bisecting Flathead Lake about twenty four miles south of Kalispell The area is one of the richest agricultural regions in Montana and fish and game are abundant The Flathead are engaged in stocking timbering and various agricultural enterprises For the Flathead the most important single fact about music and its relationship to the total world is its origin in the supernatural sphere All true and proper songs particularly in the past owe their origin to a variety of contacts experienced by humans with beings which though a part of this world are superhuman and the source of both individual and tribal powers and skills Thus a sharp distinction is drawn by the Flathead between what they call make up and all other songs Merriam s pioneering work in the relationship of ethnography and musicology remains a primary source in this field in anthropology Memoirs of the American Anthropological Association ,1918 Ka Palapala ,1928 An Introductory Guide to EC Competition Law and Practice Valentine Korah,1994 American Lumberman ,1912 Census of India, 1901 India. Census Commissioner,1903 Census of India, 1901: India (4 v.) India. Census Commissioner,1903 India Sir Herbert Hope Risley,1903 Square Dance ,1965 Crime and Religious Beliefs in India Augustus Somerville,1929 Publications Folklore Society (Great Britain),1906 Indian Antiquary ,1884 At a time when each Society had its own medium of propogation of its researches in the form of Transactions Proceedings Journals etc a need was strongly felt for bringing out a journal devoted exclusively to the study and advancement of Indian culture in all its aspects This encouraged Jas Burgess to launch the Indian antiquary in 1872 The scope was in his own words as wide as possible incorporating manners and customs arts mythology feasts festivals and rites antiquities and the history of India Another laudable aim was to present the readers abstracts of the most recent researches of scholars in India and the West Indian antiquary also dealt with local legends folklore proverbs etc In short Indian antiquary was entirely devoted to the study of MAN the Indian in all spheres introduction to facsimile volumes published 1985 Journal of American Folklore ,1913
