Marshalls Journey The Power Of Understanding Alzheimers

Vailia Dennis

Marshall's Journey The Power Of Understanding Alzheimers:

Marshall's Journey Vailia Dennis, 2004-05-14 Alzheimer's has become the A word hidden by fear denied by family members and basically presenting the image of long hard stressful care This book does not deny the years of Alzheimer decline the difficulties or the stress What it does is offer the caregiver many creative approaches for diminishing the negative aspects of the disease and help ease the day to day problems as they occur Unlike other books on the subject that explain what to do this book explains how Questions such as I want to go home Where's my wife husband sister Who are you will arise Thoughtful solutions to these and many other situations help the caregiver remain loving patient and empathetic Repetition becomes more acceptable food problems are more readily solved and in home care more tolerable Marshall's Journey offers a far deeper understanding of Alzheimer's disease and the necessary care of the patient loved one who is afflicted It assists in creating a calmer more comfortable environment for both the victim and the caregiver The book is not strictly a how to book it is autobiographical as well as informative It explains the family demographics and why an 82 year old sister was able to cope with the decline of her 78 year old brother

Health Inequities in Canada Olena Hankivsky, 2011-05-01 There is a growing recognition that existing theories on and approaches to health inequities are limited in their ability to capture how these inequities are produced through changing co constituted and intersecting effects of multiple forms of oppression Intersectionality responds to this problem by considering the interactions and combined impacts of social locations and structural processes on the creation and perpetuation of inequities It offers unique insights into and possible solutions to some of Canada's most pressing health disparities This volume brings together Canadian activists community based researchers and scholars from a range of disciplines to apply interpretations of intersectionality to health and organizational governance cases By addressing specific health issues this book advances methodological applications of intersectionality in health research policy and practice Most importantly it demonstrates that health inequities cannot be understood or addressed without the interrogation of power and diverse social locations and structures that shape lives and experiences of health

Participatory Case Study Work Sion Williams, John Keady, 2021-01-03 Participatory Case Study Work shows academic co researchers how to adapt and implement their methods so that data collection and analysis is authentically participatory At the heart of this text is advocating a participatory approach to case study work with co construction as a catalyst for shared understanding and action in advancing ageing studies Whilst case study research has a relatively long tradition in the canon of research methodologies little attention has so far been paid to the importance and value of participatory case study work This is surprising as its egalitarian and democratic value base naturally lends itself to the co production and co creation of personal and collective theory drawn directly from lived experience The book brings together over 15 years worth of participatory case study work in ageing studies in which the editors have been actively involved as either front line researchers or as supervisors to PhD and MPhil studies adopting the methodology and from where each of the contributors is selected Real life case examples are shared in the main chapters of the book and they provide direction as to how learning can be applied to other settings The chapters also contain key references and recommended reading This volume will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as research methods qualitative methods ageing studies and mental health studies
