Migrant Kingdom Mzilikazis Ndebele In South Africa:

Migrant Kingdom R. Kent Rasmussen, 1978      The Zulu-Boer War 1837-1840 Michał Leśniewski, 2021-04-19 This book offers an in depth examination of the conflict of 1838 to 1840 between the Zulus and the Boers Le niewski reflects on the established historiography and reappraises some key conceptions of the war The conflict has often been seen as a colonial war with the Zulus cast into the role of either villains or victims Drawing on written primary sources and Zulu oral tradition the author instead argues that the war was a struggle between an established regional power aiming to defend and consolidate its position and an incoming power seeking land settlement and local supremacy      Migration in Africa Michiel de Haas, Ewout Frankema, 2022-03-30 This book introduces readers to the age of intra African migration a period from the mid 19th century onward in which the center of gravity of African migration moved decisively inward Most books tend to zoom in on Africa s external migration during the earlier intercontinental slave trades and the more recent outmigration to the Global North but this book argues that migration within the continent has been far more central to the lives of Africans over the course of the last two centuries The book demonstrates that only by taking a broad historical and continent wide perspective can we understand the distinctions between the more immediate drivers of migration and deeper patterns of change over time During the 19th century Africa s external slave trades gradually declined whilst Africa s expanding commodity export sectors drew in domestic labor This led to an era of heightened mobility within the region marked by rapidly rising and vanishing migratory flows increasingly diversified landscapes of migration systems and profound long term shifts in the wider patterns of migration This era of inward focused mobility reduced with a resurgence of outmigration after 1960 when Africans became more deliberate in search of extra continental destinations with new diaspora communities emerging specifically in the Global North Broad ranging in its temporal spatial and thematic coverage this book provides students and researchers with the perfect introduction to age of intra African migration      Mfecane Aftermath Carolyn Hamilton, 1995 The idea that the period of social turbulence in the nineteenth century was a consequence of the emergence of the powerful Zulu kingdom under Shaka has been written about extensively as a central episode of southern African history Considerable dynamic debate has focused on the idea that this period the mfecane left much of the interior depopulated thereby justifying white occupation One view is that the time of troubles owed more to the Delagoa Bay Slave trade and the demands of the labour hungry Cape colonists than to Shaka s empire building But is there sufficient evidence to support the argument The Mfecane Aftermath investigates the very nature of historical debate and examines the uncertain foundations of much of the previous historiography      Violence and Belonging Vigdis Broch-Due, 2005 Violence and Belonging explores the formative role of violence in shaping people s identities in modern postcolonial Africa      Encyclopedia of Africa South of the Sahara: Literature - Reunion John Middleton, 1997      Society, State, and Identity in African History Bahru Zewde, 2008 The Fourth Congress of the Association of African historians was held in Addis Ababa in May 2007 These 21 papers are a key selection of the papers presented there with an introduction by the distinguished historian Bahru Zewde Given the contemporary salience and the historical depth of the issue of identity the congress was devoted to that global phenomenon within Africa The papers explore and analyse the issue of identity in its diverse temporal settings from its pre colonial roots to its coteremporary manifestations The papers are divided into six parts Pre Colonial Identities Colonialism and Identity Conceptions of the Nation State and Identity Identity Based Conflicts Migration and Acculturation and Memory History and Identity The authors are scholars from Benin Botswana Cameroon the Democratic Republic of Congo Ethiopia Mali Nigeria Senegal South Africa and Zimbabwe Bahru Zewde is Emeritus Professor of History at Addis Ababa University Executive Director of the Forum for Social Studies and Vice President of the Association of African Historians He was formerly Chairperson of the Department of History and Director of the Institute of Ethiopian Studies at Addis Ababa University Amongst his publication is A History of Modern Ethiopia 1855 1991 Mfecane to Boer War Elmar Lehmann, Erhard Reckwitz, 1992 The Politics of Official Discourse in Twentieth-century South Africa Adam Ashforth, 1990 This study uses a close reading of a series of major commission reports into the Native Question to examine the formation and reproduction of state power in South Africa Analyzing the framework governing authoritative ways of speaking of for and to Blacks once called Natives Ashforth demonstrates how officially approved forms of knowledge of Native Life substitute for political representation by Africans and continually serve to justify repression He examines the terms used by those who acting in the name of the state strive to represent apartheid as necessary practical and just Tracing the history of official discourse on the political status of African labor the work illuminates the central contradictions in the politics of this repressive and exploitative regime Rural Transformations in Industrializing South Africa Timothy J. Keegan, 1987 Property Rights in South Africa, 1999 The James Stuart Archive of Recorded Oral Evidence Relating to the History of the Zulu and Neighbouring Peoples Colin de B. Webb, John B. Wright, 1976 James Stuart was one of the most remarkable Natalians of his day Though there was nothing outwardly spectacular about his career as a colonial official in 25 years of single minded labour he built up what is now regarded as the most valuable collection of African oral traditions in existence in southern Africa As a magistrate in some of the remotest corners of the Natal colony in the 1890s and early 1900s Stuart sought out old people who remembered the times of Dingane and Mpande and whose fathers and mothers had been ruled by Shaka Interviewing them in fluent Zulu he painstakingly filled hundreds of notebooks with their reminiscences and the traditions which older generations had handed down to them The statements which Stuart recorded from nearly 200 informants are now housed together with his own writings on Zulu customs language and praise poetry in the Killie Campbell Africana Library in Durban Since 1971 the department of Historical and Political Studies at the University of Natal Pietermaritzburg has been engaged in a project which aims to publish all the historical evidence collected by Stuart The Bantu Bibliography Jouni Maho, 2008 Third World/Iowa: Africa University of Iowa.
