Operation Memory Princeton Series Of Contemporary Poets:

Operation Memory David Lehman, 1990 Reviewers responded enthusiastically to An Alternative to Speech David Lehman's first collection of poems three years ago John Ash writing in The New York Times Book Review praised Lehman's poetry as elegant exuberant witty lyrical and technically sophisticated Mark Ford in The Times Literary Supplement called the poet's effects irresistible Lehman's new book is of equal or even surpassing excellence notable for its wide range of subjects its variety of inventions its combination of wit and poignancy Perfidia You don't know who these people are or what They'll do to you if you're caught but you can't Back out now it seems you agreed to carry A briefcase into Germany and here you are Glass in hand as instructed You rise to dance With the woman with the garnet earrings who is Of course the agent you're supposed to seduce And betray within the hour Who would have known You'd fall in love with her Elsewhere the day Is as gray as a newsreel full of stripes and dots Of rain a blurred windshield picture of Pittsburgh But on the screen where your real life is happening It is always 1938 you are always dancing With the same blonde woman with the bloodshot eyes Who slips the forged passport into your pocket And says she knows you've been sent to betray her Or else it is seventy degrees and holding In California where you see yourself emerge unscathed From the car crash that wiped out your memory Your past as you walk into a gambler's hangout On Sunset Boulevard in a suit one size too large And the piano player plays Perfidia in your honor And the redhead at the bar lets you buy her a drink

Choice, 1990 Carnations Anthony Carelli, 2011-03-14 In Anthony Carelli's remarkable debut Carnations the poems attempt to reanimate dead metaphors as blossoms wild and lovely but also fleeting mortal and averse to the touch Here the poems are carnations not only flowers but also body making words Nodding to influences as varied as George Herbert Francis Ponge Fernando Pessoa and D H Lawrence Carelli asserts that the poet's materials words objects phenomena are sacred wilting in the moment yet perennially renewed Often taking titles from a biblical vocabulary Carnations reminds us that unremarkable places and events a game of Frisbee in a winter park workers stacking panes in a glass factory or the daily opening of a caf can in a blink be new A short walk home is briefly transformed into a cathedral and the work worn body becomes a dancer a prophet a muse ____ From Carnations THE PROPHETS Anthony Carelli A river And if not the river nearby then a dream of a river Nothing happens that doesn't happen along a river however humble the water may be Take Rowan Creek the trickle struggling to lug its mirroring across Poynette wherein suspended so gentle and shallow I learned to walk bobbing at my father's knees Later whenever we tried to meander on our inner tubes we'd get lodged on the bottom Seth remember no matter how we'd kick and shove off we'd just get lodged again At most an afternoon would carry us a hundred feet toward the willows We'd piss ourselves on purpose just to feel the spirits of our warmth haloing out And once two bald men on the footbridge bowing in the sky stared down at us without a word
