Operation Memory:

Operation Memory David Lehman, 1990 Reviewers responded enthusiastically to An Alternative to Speech David Lehman's first collection of poems three years ago John Ash writing in The New York Times Book Review praised Lehman's poetry as elegant exuberant witty lyrical and technically sophisticated Mark Ford in The Times Literary Supplement called the poet's effects irresistible Lehman's new book is of equal or even surpassing excellence notable for its wide range of subjects its variety of inventions its combination of wit and poignancy Perfidia You don't know who these people are or what They'll do to you if you're caught but you can't Back out now it seems you agreed to carry A briefcase into Germany and here you are Glass in hand as instructed You rise to dance With the woman with the garnet earrings who is Of course the agent you're supposed to seduce And betray within the hour Who would have known You'd fall in love with her Elsewhere the day Is as gray as a newsreel full of stripes and dots Of rain a blurred windshield picture of Pittsburgh But on the screen where your real life is happening It is always 1938 you are always dancing With the same blonde woman with the bloodshot eyes Who slips the forged passport into your pocket And says she knows you've been sent to betray her Or else it is seventy degrees and holding In California where you see yourself emerge unscathed From the car crash that wiped out your memory Your past as you walk into a gambler's hangout On Sunset Boulevard in a suit one size too large And the piano player plays Perfidia in your honor And the redhead at the bar lets you buy her a drink Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office United States.
