Constructing a German Diaspora Stefan Manz, 2014-06-05 This book takes on a global perspective to unravel the complex relationship between Imperial Germany and its diaspora Around 1900 German speakers living abroad were tied into global power political aspirations They were represented as outposts of a Greater German Empire whose ethnic links had to be preserved for their own and the fatherland s benefits Did these ideas fall on fertile ground abroad In the light of extreme social political and religious heterogeneity diaspora construction did not redeem the all encompassing fantasies of its engineers But it certainly was at work as nationalism went global in many German ethnic communities Three thematic areas are taken as examples to illustrate the emergence of globally operating organizations and communication flows Politics and the navy issue Protestantism and German schools abroad as bulwarks of language preservation The public negotiation of these issues is explored for localities as diverse as Shanghai Cape Town Blumenau in Brazil Melbourne Glasgow the Upper Midwest in the United States and the Volga Basin in Russia The mobilisation of ethno national diasporas is also a feature of modern day globalization The theoretical ramifications analysed in the book are as poignant today as they were for the nineteenth century
