

A wide-angle photograph of the Vienna State Opera House interior, specifically during the New Year's Concert. The ornate, gold-colored auditorium is filled with spectators. The stage is lavishly decorated with white and pink flowers. The ceiling is high with multiple levels of balconies and chandeliers. The overall atmosphere is grand and festive.

O Ye Millions I Embrace Ye:

Symphony No. 9 (The Choral Symphony - Last Movement, Opus 125) Ludwig van Beethoven, 1999-08-26 Beethoven's symphonic masterpiece written between 1818 and 1824 actually had sources dating from earlier in his life. For example many years earlier Beethoven had expressed wishes to set Schiller's poem the Ode to Joy to music and the realization of this desire finally took place in the final movement of the 9th Symphony also known as the Choral Symphony. This score presents the choral portion of the symphony beginning with the baritone recitative that precedes the choir's entrance. This score presents the soloist and choir parts on separate lines over a piano reduction of the orchestral parts

Programs of Concerts Conducted by Willem Mengelberg, 1924 Masterworks of the Orchestral Repertoire Donald N. Ferguson, 1968-03-04 Masterworks of the Orchestral Repertoire was first published in 1968 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions. The fullest enjoyment of an orchestral performance or a record concert comes with a background of knowledge about the music itself. This handbook is designed to help music lovers get the ultimate pleasure from their listening by providing them with that background about a large portion of the orchestral repertoire. Professor Ferguson analyzes and interprets the most important classical symphonies, overtures, and concertos as well as selected orchestral works of modern composers. He goes beyond a conventional analysis of structure since he believes with a majority of the music loving public that great music is actually a communication that it expresses significant emotions. The great composers on their own testimony have striven not merely to create perfect forms but to interpret human experience.

Mingled with the analyses then the reader will find comments on the expressive purport of the music. For twenty five years Professor Ferguson has supplied the program notes for the subscription concerts of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra and this volume is an outgrowth of that activity. In preparing the material for book publication however he studied the musical compositions anew and the resulting chapters provide a much deeper exploration of the musical subjects than did the program notes. The themes of important works are illustrated by musical notations and a brief glossary explains technical terms
