Forever, Erma Erma Bombeck, 2013-01-15 New York Times Bestseller This anthology of Erma Bombeck's most memorable and humorous essays is a tribute to one of America's sharpest wits When she began writing her regular newspaper column in 1965 Erma Bombeck's goal was to make housewives laugh Thirty years later she had published more than four thousand columns and earned countless laughs from housewives presidents and everyone in between With grace good humor and razor sharp prose she gently skewered every aspect of the American family This collection holds the best of her columns not just her famous quips but also the heartbreaking observations that gave her writing such weight In 1969 Erma wrote screaming kids unpaid bills green leftovers husbands behind newspapers basketballs in the bathroom They're real they're warm they're the only bit of normalcy left in this cockeyed world and I'm going to cling to it like life itself With what Publishers Weekly calls her infectious sense of human absurdity Erma Bombeck's writing remains a timeless examination of the still cockeyed world This ebook features an illustrated biography of Erma Bombeck including rare images and never before seen documents from the author's estate
