Various,2021-08-31 Originally published between 1961 and 1994 the volumes in this set sit equally comfortably in sociology and geography as well as housing studies Even though they were published some years ago their content continues to offer critical engagement with an evolving policy agenda which is even more important in a time of crisis and deeper polarization both nationally and globally as a result of the pandemic They Provide a comprehensive political economic analysis of the historical origins and 20th Century experience of 19th and 20th Century housing tenure in the UK France Germany the former USSR Israel Denmark Sweden Hungary Puerto Rico and the USA Discuss landlord tenant relations and the neglect of particular disadvantaged groups such as the elderly the single homeless and those in low income groups Examine the balance between rehabilitation and redevelopment and the rise and fall of the high rise flat Cover issues such as rent rent controls subsidies and urban renewal Look at the implications of selling council houses and evaluate the impact of the growth of home ownership in the UK Address the practical and political difficulties of devising measures which meet policy objectives

Sustainable Building Adaptation Sara J. Wilkinson,Hilde Remøy,Craig Langston,2014-01-21 How to adapt existing building stock is a problem being addressed by local and state governments worldwide In most developed countries we now spend more on building adaptation than on new construction and there is an urgent need for greater knowledge and awareness of what happens to commercial buildings over time Sustainable Building Adaptation innovations in decision making is a significant contribution to understanding best practice in sustainable adaptations to existing commercial buildings by offering new knowledge based theoretical and practical insights Models used are grounded in results of case studies conducted within three collaborative construction project team settings in Australia and the Netherlands and exemplars are drawn from the Americas Asia Japan Korea and Europe to demonstrate the application of the knowledge more broadly Results clearly demonstrate that the new models can assist with informed decision making in adaptation that challenges some of the prevailing solutions based on empirical approaches and which do not accommodate the sustainability dimension The emphasis is on demonstrating how the new knowledge can be applied by practitioners to deliver professionally relevant outcomes The book offers guidance towards a balanced approach that incorporates sustainable and optimal approaches for effective management of sustainable adaptation of existing commercial buildings

Owner-Occupation in Britain Stephen Merrett,2021-03-23 Originally published in 1982 this is a companion volume to State Housing in Britain Together the 2 volumes cover the tenure of some 85% of all British households in much of the 20th Century The development of the tenure between 1918 and 1970 with special reference to its position in state housing policies is examined Subsequent chapters analyse effective demand since 1970 both with respect to its demographic base and as regards the capacity to buy In particular the question of why people want to buy is asked and the supply of housing both council houses and former private rented accommodation as well as the output of speculative housebuilders is considered A detailed survey of the perturbations in the housing market during the volatile experience of the British economy since 1970 is also covered Facilities Change Management Edward Finch,2011-11-14 Modern organisations are subject to continual change technologies evolve organisational structures are modified people and underlying cultures are transformed Yet the facilities that organisations occupy are static and can impede the changes that are essential to organisational survival The response to change in terms of property and support services is often too little too late leading to facilities that do not support organisational reality The facilities management team is thus constantly challenged to bridge the gap between what an organisation has and what it needs Facilities Change Management is a practical evaluation of the management of change for facilities managers and related professions It considers the forces of change affecting facilities decisions the obstacles to change at a resource level and human level the effective implementation of change the human aspect of change Each of these is considered in relation to modern facilities management issues The discussion will enable practising facilities managers project managers surveyors service providers and architects to understand engage with and manage facilities change effectively at a strategic level Through real life case studies it demonstrates the complexities of change and hidden elements of change that may undermine carefully planned projects Housing Policy Tony Newson,1986 Clearinghouse Review ,2007 Slum Housing and Residential Renewal David Anthony Kirby,1979 The Geography of Housing Larry S.
