Communications Media, Globalization, and Empire

Oliver Boyd-Barrett, 2007-02-20

An exploration of the political economy of media and to what extent global communications and popular entertainment continue to serve elite interests

In Communications Media Globalization and Empire an international team of experts analyzes and critiques the political economy of media communications worldwide

Their analysis takes particular account of the sometimes conflicting pressures of globalization and neo imperialism

The first is commonly defined as the dismantling of barriers to trade and cultural exchange and responds significantly to lobbying of the world's largest corporations including media corporations

The second concerns US pursuit of national security interests as response to terrorism at one level and at others to intensifying competition among both nations and corporations for global natural resources
