The Day I Pounded Upon God's Door Mar'eh,2012-04-17 Just as suddenly as the chaotic and terrifying ordeal had all started it seemed as though all movement ceased in a split second There was blood sprayed in every direction inside and out and on the ground I had blood coming out of my mouth nose and ears The pounding of my heart was mammoth I could feel it pounding almost at the top of my head I was stoic as a statue expressionless motionless The sound of the cold breeze whistled around me like a cruel joke My jaws were locked my body began to shiver and then it shook uncontrollably My teeth began to chatter I had never before experienced such grief in all my life My mind was just racing like a fanatic my heart pounding out of control No one could have imagined the depth of my grief at that moment in time Helpless and immobile as I stood there watching my husband leave his body I felt that I would lose my mind I screamed yet there was not a sound that would come out of my mouth In one long uninterrupted silent scream I screamed at Peter not to die I screamed at the other driver who caused this nightmare I screamed at my pathetic legs for not being able to walk I screamed for God I screamed to Him for help My God my God please do not abandon me I begged Him Then from the depths of my soul came a gut wrenching primal scream that had been involuntarily released right out of my throat and from the pit of my stomach a scream so agonizing that one of the men who was standing at the scene immediately covered his ears with both hands and sobbed like a child his face contorted in obvious torture his hands tightly squeezing the volatile sounds of my shrieks out of his ears It was a scream that was no longer my own but that of a sadness that came from deep within the uncharted and dormant corners of my heart It was a scream that awakened in me a state of reverence and dread of unmatched proportions I fell to my knees and came pounding upon God s door that day The speckles of broken glass reflected light like a thousand stars in a fallen sky I watched in disbelief how we really have no control of our
