Sex Money Murder Jonathan Green, 2018-05-15 Nominated for an Edgar Award Exceptionally authentic Jill Leovy The New York Times Book Review In the late 1980s and early 1990s the Bronx had one of the country's highest per capita homicide rates. As crack cocaine use surged, dealers claimed territory through intimidation and murder while families were fractured by crime and incarceration. Chronicling the rise and fall of Sex Money Murder, one of the era's most notorious gangs, reporter Jonathan Green creates a visceral and devastating portrait of a New York City borough and the dedicated detectives and prosecutors struggling to stem the tide of violence. Drawing on years of research and extraordinary access to gang leaders, law enforcement, and federal prosecutors, Green delivers an engrossing work of gritty urban reportage. Magisterial in its scope, Sex Money Murder offers a unique perspective on the violence raging in modern-day America and the battle to end it.

Murder at Smutty Nose Edmund Lester Pearson, 1926 The Jewish Encyclopedia: Bencemero-Chazanuth Isidore Singer, 1902 By Weapons Made Worthy Jos Bazelmans, 1999

In this book Jos Bazelmans offers a new perspective on the relationship between lord and retainer in early medieval society. This perspective goes beyond established politico-economic interpretations and aims for an interpretation of this relationship in ritual cosmological terms. Drawing on recent developments within French structuralist anthropology and the anthropology of gift exchange, Bazelmans develops a new model of early medieval socio-political structure as represented in Old English Beowulf, which explicitly deals with exchange relations between the living and the supernatural, the commensurability of subject and object in gift exchange, and the whole set of interdependent life cycle rituals of lords and their warrior followers. The value of gifts is considered to be determined not only by their function within a competitive game about prestige status and power but also by its equivalence with a constituent. The value of the gift is fundamental to the noble person and develops through a man's life time. It is ultimately of a supernatural origin. The model enables us to understand certain acts at Beowulf's funeral pyre which at first sight appear to be no more than an ethnographic curiosity. Beowulf 3111b-3114a. The warrior's contributions to his pyre form the concluding part of a grand ritual undertaking in which society as a whole is involved and in which the constitution of the noble person and the disarticulation of that person at his death is realized. This ritual undertaking goes beyond the politico-economic concerns of the participants which are central to established power-based models of early medieval societal structure. The volume includes an extensive overview of the anthropology of gift exchange.
