A great number of novels, stories, movies, plays, and comics are variations or adaptations of the story, featuring similar plots built around wishes that go awry in macabre ways, occasionally with references to monkey's paws or to the story itself. The story is frequently parodied on television shows and comic books, including a Simpsons tree house of horrors episode. Monkey's Paw W. W. Jacobs, 2003

In the story, three wishes are granted to the owner of the monkey's hand, but the wishes come with an enormous price for interfering with fate. Plot: The story involves Mr. and Mrs. White and their adult son, Herbert Sergeant Major Morris, a friend who served with the British Army in India, introduces them to a mummified monkey's paw. An old fakir placed a spell on the paw that it would grant three wishes to three separate men. The wishes are granted, but always with hellish consequences as punishment for tampering with fate. Morris tells the Whites of his comrade who used his third wish to wish for death. Morris, also having had a horrific experience upon using the paw, throws the monkey's paw into the fire, but Mr. White retrieves it. Before leaving, Morris warns Mr. White that if he does use the paw, then be it on his own head. At Herbert's suggestion, Mr. White wishes for 200 to be used as the final payment on his house, even though he believes he has everything he wants. The next day, his son, Herbert, leaves for work at a local factory. Later that day, word comes to the White home that Herbert has been killed in a terrible machinery accident. Although the employer denies responsibility for the incident, the firm makes a goodwill payment to the family of the deceased. The payment is 200. The Monkey's Paw W. W. The Monkey's Paw W W Jacobs,2021-05-02 The story is set in England around the turn of the twentieth century It opens with the elderly Mr and Mrs White and their son Herbert in their cozy family home one stormy evening Father and son are playing chess while Mrs White knits by the fire From their conversation it is apparent they are expecting a visitor The visitor soon arrives Mr White introduces him as Sergeant Major Morris The family welcomes him warmly and as he relaxes with a drink he tells them exciting stories of his time in India under British rule at the time of the story Mr White remarks that he would like to see the strange and exotic sights of India but Morris says he's better off at home Mr White remembers the strange tale of a monkey's paw that Morris recently told him Morris somewhat reluctantly shows them the paw and declares that an old Indian fakir placed a spell on it As a result according to Morris the paw has the power to grant three wishes but it brings disaster upon the wisher in the process Morris then tosses the paw onto the fire but Mr White hastily retrieves it Morris warns him that he should stay away from the paw However the Whites are curious and Mr White ends up buying the paw from Morris The Monkey's Paw (Annotated) William Wymark Jacobs,2020-01-28 Differentiated book It has a historical context with research of the time The story begins by telling a scene in which father and son Mr White and Herbert are playing chess in their living room and are in the company of the mother It is a cold and wet night which helps to insert and increase the suspense A new character arrives on stage whom they were waiting for and is very dear to the family and tells them of the places he has been while serving as a sergeant in India It is here that he tells the story of the monkey leg The monkey leg is a talisman that can be asked for three wishes but each of these wishes are fulfilled in unexpected conditions and you have to learn to endure and live with its consequences This new character is Sergeant Morris who as already said comes from India and tells them that an old fakir haunted this monkey leg so that three men would ask for three wishes Apparently this monkey leg had already fulfilled the sergeant's wishes the former owner of the talisman had also fulfilled his wishes being the last death He also explained how the talisman was used and talked about its effectiveness

Apparently Morris had been so terrified by this talisman that he decided to throw it into the fire but Mr White decided to take it and keep it He decides to make his first wish without paying attention to the warnings Morris had given him The first desire is money that they need to finish paying the house mortgage The money comes the next day with a terrible consequence the death of Herbert The other two wishes ask them to remedy the fatal consequence of the first but after the last wish it is as if it annulled everything as if nothing had happened beyond the first desire Monkey's Paw W.
