Monomania The Flight From Everyday Life:

Monomania Marina Van Zuylen, 2018-05-31 This book is about the obsessive strategies people use to keep the arbitrary out of their lives it is about the fanaticism and intolerance linked to their ideas of perfection and permanence Those readers who have brushed against the dangers of the id e fixe who have come close to surrendering to something or someone diabolically seductive or coercive will recognize in these characters their own encounter with a dangerously systematized world From the introduction Monomania explores the cultural prominence of the id e fixe in Western Europe during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Marina van Zuylen revives the term monomania to explore the therapeutic attributes of obsession She introduces us to artists and collectors voyeurs and scholars hypochondriacs and melancholics whose lives are run by debilitating compulsions that may become powerful weapons against the tyranny of everyday life In van Zuylen's view there is a productive tension between disabling fixations and their curative powers she argues that the id e fixe has acted as a corrective for the multiple disorders of modernity The authors she studies Charles Baudelaire Sophie Calle Elias Canetti George Eliot Gustave Flaubert and Thomas Mann among them embody or set in motion different manifestations of this monomaniacal imperative Their protagonists or alter egos live more intensely more meaningfully because of the compulsive pressures they set up for themselves Monomania shows that transforming life into art or at least into the artful drives out the anxiety of the void and puts in its place something so orderly and meaningful that it can take on the aura of a religion

Material Ambitions Rebecca Richardson, 2021-11-30 Intertwining the methodologies of disability studies and ecocriticism Material Ambitions persuasively unmask the longstanding myth that ambitious individualism can overcome disadvantageous systematic and structural conditions Listening and Longing Daniel Cavicchi, 2012-01-01 Winner of the Northeast Popular Culture Association's Peter C Rollins Book Award 2012 Winner of the ASCAP Deems Taylor Award 2012 Listening and Longing explores the emergence of music listening in the United States from its early stages in the antebellum era when entrepreneurs first packaged and sold the experience of hearing musical performance to the Gilded Age when genteel critics began to successfully redefine the cultural value of listening to music In a series of interconnected stories American studies scholar Daniel Cavicchi focuses on the impact of industrialization urbanization and commercialization in shaping practices of music audiences in America Grounding our contemporary culture of listening in its seminal historical moment before the iPod stereo system or phonograph Cavicchi offers a fresh understanding of the role of listening in the history of music

Possessed Rebecca R. Falkoff, 2021-05-15 In Possessed Rebecca R Falkoff asks how hoarding once a paradigm of economic rationality came to be defined as a mental illness Hoarding is unique among the disorders included in the American Psychiatric Association's DSM 5 because its diagnosis requires the existence of a material entity the hoard Possessed therefore considers the hoard as an aesthetic object produced by clashing perspectives about the meaning or value of objects The 2000s have seen a surge of cultural interest in hoarding and those whose possessions overwhelm their living spaces

Unlike traditional economic elaborations of hoarding which focus on stockpiles of bullion or grain contemporary hoarding results in accumulations of objects that have little or no value or utility Analyzing themes and structures of hoarding across a range of literary and visual texts including works by Nikolai Gogol Arthur Conan Doyle Carlo Emilio Gadda Luigi Malerba Song Dong and E L Doctorow Falkoff traces the fraught materialities of the present to cluttered spaces of modernity bibliomaniacs libraries flea markets crime scenes dust heaps and digital archives Possessed shows how the figure of the hoarder has come to personify the economic epistemological and ecological conditions of modernity Thanks to generous funding from New York University and its participation in TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access OA volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other Open Access repositories

Creating character Helena Ifill, 2018-02-28 This book explores the ways in which the two leading sensation authors of the 1860s Mary Elizabeth Braddon and Wilkie Collins engaged with nineteenth century ideas about personality formation and the extent to which it can be influenced either by the subject or by others Innovative readings of seven sensation novels explore how they employ and challenge Victorian theories of heredity degeneration inherent constitution education upbringing and social circumstance Far from presenting a reductive depiction of nature versus nurture Braddon and Collins show the creation of character to be a complex interplay of internal and external factors Drawing on material ranging from medical textbooks to sociological treatises to popular periodicals Creating character shows how sensation authors situated themselves at the intersections of established and developing conservative and radical learned and sensationalist thought about how identity could be made and modified

Victorian Secrecy Denise Tischler Millstein, 2016-02-24 Whether commercial personal political professional or spiritual knowledge was capital for the Victorians in their ongoing project of constructing a modern information based society Victorian Secrecy explores the myriad ways in which knowledge was both zealously accumulated and jealously guarded by individuals institutions and government entities in Victorian Britain Offering a wide variety of critical approaches and disciplinary perspectives the contributors examine secretive actors with respect to a broad range of subjects including the narrator in Tess of the d'Urbervilles John Henry Newman's autobiographical novel Loss and Gain Richard Dadd's The Fairy Feller's Masterstroke modes of detection in Bleak House the secret history of Harriet Martineau's role in the repeal of the Corn Law and Victorian stage magicians Taken together the essays provide a richly textured account of which modes of hiding and revealing articulate secrets in Victorian literature and culture how social relations are formed and reformed in relationship to secrecy and what was at stake individually aesthetically and culturally in the Victorians clandestine activities
