Monterey A Pictorial Narrative:

A Pictorial and Narrative History of Monterey, Adobe Capital of California, 1770-1847 Jeanne Van Nostrand, 1968     The Pictorial Story of America Elia Wilkinson Peattie, 1895     The Townsend Family in the Emerging American West, 1856-1926 Susan E. James, 2024-11-18 This book examines the life of the Townsend family and the events that occurred during the period of 1856-1926 that shaped an expanding American West. Bryant and Julia Riley Townsend and their three children were born into an age of rapid change and competing cultures. Witnesses to a century of events that shaped a nation, their lives define the complexities and challenges of incomers who arrived in an expanding American West. From the Gold Rush to the California oil boom, from slavery to female suffrage, from Indian Wars to World Wars, the Townsends lived through violent upheavals, outlasting cities, societal beliefs, and entire ways of life. Married in a mining camp in Nevada and relocating frequently, the couple embraced the momentary riches, shattering losses, and personal disasters faced by a vast number of immigrants, foreign and domestic, striving to survive in an often hostile landscape. Their lives and those of their three children, Minnie, Edith, Bryant, and Persia, form the architecture supporting an examination of multiple facets of the Western experience and are exemplars of the different populations that merged to form the American identity. This volume will be of value to students and scholars interested in American history, social and cultural history, and modern history.     Pictorial History of Mexico and the Mexican War John Frost, 1871     The Library of Dr. Roger K. When a whale carcass lands on the deep ocean floor, a café opens for business and the diners don't stop munching, sipping, digging, crawling, burrowing, and rooting their way through the menu until the cupboards are bare. One medium-size whale carcass delivers as much food to the dark cold ocean depths as 4,000 years of sinking food particles. When a dead whale arrives, the café opens for business, and who better than Dan Tavis to show us the bizarre deep-ocean diners who show up? Hagfish, zombie worms, sleeper sharks: this group of patrons is stranger than the denizens of the Mos Eisley Cantina in Star Wars. A fish in a lab coat piloting a deep-sea submersible is our guide to the weirdly fascinating goings-on miles beneath the ocean surface. The backmatter includes rare whale fall photos from the Monterey Bay Aquarium Research Institute. Dr. Robert Vrijenhoek of MBARI and Dr. Craig Smith, a deep-ocean ecologist at the University of Hawaii, have helped Jacquie Sewell to ensure scientific accuracy.     Theatre Magazine, 1923     The Quarterly Historical Society of Southern California, 1969
