Morisot Enchantment:

Morisot, Enchantment Philippe Huisman, 1963 Morisot, 1970-01-01 The Women Impressionists Russell T. Clement, Christiane Erbolato-Ramsey, Annick Houzé, 2000-02-28 This reference organizes and describes the primary and secondary literature surrounding Mary Stevenson Cassatt Berthe Morisot Eva Gonzal s and Marie Bracquemond four major women Impressionist artists The Impressionist group included several women artists of considerable ability whose works and lives were largely ignored until the advent of feminist art criticism in the early 1970s They studied worked and exhibited with their male counterparts including Degas Manet Monet and Pissarro The entries provide extensive coverage of the careers critical reception exhibition history and growing reputations of these four female artists and discuss women Impressionists in general as they shared the challenges of becoming accepted as professional artists in late 19th century society Containing nearly 900 citations of manuscripts books articles reproductions films exhibitions and reviews this unique sourcebook will appeal to both art and women s studies scholars Each artist receives a biographical sketch chronology information about individual and group exhibitions and reviews and a primary and secondary bibliography which captures details about the artist s life career and relationship with other artists An art works index and names index complete the volume Morisot's Modernism and Impressionist Art Claire Moran, 2025-09-29 This volume seeks to reframe French Impressionist painter Berthe Morisot 1841 95 in the history of art via a focus on the spaces and people that informed her work and thereby offers a new interpretation of Impressionism and of modernist aesthetics Claire Moran utilizes close visual analyses of artworks in particular those of family friends domestic servants and acquaintances textual analysis of Morisot s journals and letters investigation of late nineteenth century advice manuals magazines and advertisements in relation to Morisot s life and work examination of housing floor plans and gardens and the study of specific household objects that recur in her work and their history This multi pronged method of analysis grounded in Morisot s lived experience will allow a new understanding of Morisot s art to emerge one with the potential to not only highlight the modernity of her aesthetics but also question both public and critical assumptions about Impressionism The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history gender studies French studies and history of design French Painters and Paintings from the Fourteenth Century to Post-impressionism Gerd Muehsam, 1970 Manet Diana Seave Greenwald, 2024-10-29 A groundbreaking and richly illustrated account of the importance of Manet s family to his art All families are complicated but the family of douard Manet 1832 1883 was more complicated than most The artist married a piano teacher who worked for his wealthy parents Her son born out of wedlock may have been douard s his father s or another man s For all its complexities Manet s family fueled his creativity They were his most frequent models and supported him emotionally and financially Manet A Model Family is an innovative new exploration of the largely neglected story of the importance of Manet s family to his art Presenting new research on works in which Manet depicted family members Manet A Model Family shows how an understanding of the artist s family sheds crucial light on his artistic career Manet s mother wife stepson and other relatives including his sister in law the painter Berthe Morisot are given long overdue recognition for their roles in Manet s life and work Leading scholars present technical and archival analysis including redating Madame Auguste Manet an important newly conserved painting of Manet s mother In an essay inspired by that canvas Pulitzer Prize winning critic Hilton Als reconsiders Manet s formative relationship with his mother and his bourgeois Parisian roots With its original account of Manet s domestic relationships and personal life Manet A Model Family humanizes the artist and his contributions to the birth of modernism Published in association with the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum Exhibition Schedule Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum Boston October 10 2024 January 20 2025 The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints ,1968 Women Artists Donna G. Libaw,2005-10-31 This book shows how painting since the mid 1800s has reflected Western society s mixed feelings about the transformations in our world produced by science and technology Neither a chronicle of the development of modern art nor a history of the modern era it instead discusses how artists have represented feelings and ideas about the technological changes of modern times Some artists approach this task with an outward focus representing the world they perceive Others focus inward choosing to represent their personal reactions to that world The author examines both approaches to show how major art movements of the last two centuries are related to the largest ever changes in human knowledge An analysis of 28 works reveals perceptions of technological change as both blessing and curse The result of this analysis is a fresh view of the major artworks of the past century and a half along with intriguing insights into our own attitudes towards our world Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library.
