Mon Afrique:

Corpses of Unity Nsah Mala, Mbizo Chirasha, 2020-07-08 Cameroon is no longer a peace haven in Central Africa. This bilingual poetry anthology is a literary response to the avoidable but worsening and under reported fratricidal war in Anglophone Cameroon. Written in English and French the anthology brings together thirty three poets from thirteen countries in Africa and beyond. The poets are concerned with the blood baths, burnings and other crimes committed in Anglophone Cameroon in the name of unity or division. Their poems paint raw images of the cruel killings of old people, pregnant women and children like those of Ngarbuh Massacre. They excavate the hidden mass graves and unveil the countless villages reduced to ashes and rubble. They recall the burning of animals and food and the brutal killing of nurses, patients and teachers. Their stanzas meander along with refugees in forests into Nigeria, into the jungles of Mexico en route to the US and elsewhere. It is poetry speaking for human life and dignity, for peace and education, for inclusive dialogue for reconciliation. It is poetry which should ruffle the consciences of those doing business in war, those pulling strings behind curtains, those who see oil before humans, those who trigger guns at their own brothers, sisters and parents, those who give orders to kill in short, those who enjoy warfare as they profit from the spoils of war. This anthology seeks to raise global awareness on this forgotten war as a way of contributing to justice, healing and peace in Cameroon.

Excursions in World Music Timothy Rommen, Bruno Nettl, 2020-09-17. Excursions in World Music is a comprehensive introductory textbook to the musics of the world, creating a panoramic experience for students by engaging the many cultures around the globe and highlighting the sheer diversity to be experienced in the world of music. At the same time the text illustrates the often profound ways through which a deeper exploration of these many different communities can reveal overlaps, shared horizons and common concerns, in spite of and because of this very diversity. The new eighth edition features six brand new chapters including chapters on Japan, Sub-Saharan Africa, China and Taiwan, Europe, Maritime Southeast Asia and Indigenous Peoples. General updates have been made to other chapters, replacing visuals and updating charts, statistics. Another major addition to the eighth edition is the publication of a companion Reader entitled Critical Themes in World Music. Each chapter in the Reader is designed to introduce students to a theoretical concept or thematic area within ethnomusicology and illustrate its possibilities by pointing to case studies drawn from at least three chapters in Excursions in World Music. Chapters include the following topics: Music, Gender and Sexuality, Music and Ritual, Coloniality and World Music, Music and Space, Music and Diaspora, Communication Technology, Media, Musical Labor, Musical Value and Music and Memory. Instructors can use this resource as a primary or secondary path through the materials, either assigning chapters from the textbook and then digging deeper by exploring a chapter from the Reader or starting with a Reader chapter and then moving into the musical specifics offered in the textbook chapters. Having available both an area studies and a thematic approach to the materials offers important flexibility to instructors and also provides students with additional means of engaging with the musics of the world. A companion website with a new test bank and fully updated instructor s manual is available for instructors Numerous resources are posted for students including streamed audio listening additional resources such as links to YouTube videos or websites a musical fundamentals essay introducing concepts such as meter melody harmony form etc interactive quizzes and flashcards
