Monastic Journey:

The Monastic Journey Thomas Merton, 1977 The writings of Thomas Merton on the monastic journey The Monastic Journey Thomas Merton, Patrick Hart, 1977-01-01 The Monastic Journey Thomas Merton, 1978 Monastic Perspectives on Temporality Riitta Hujanen, 2023-08-07 In this book Riitta Hujanen explores temporality in the context of Catholic enclosed contemplative traditions It investigates based on literature and other sources what enclosed contemplatives might say about temporality through their monastic journeys What makes a young person decide to dedicate their life inside a cloister Do contemplatives have a preference for eternity over temporal time How does the enclosed contemplative life impact one's concept of time How is time perceived towards the end of one's monastic journey What is seen when looking back to the years in the enclosed contemplative life What is experienced at the hour of death The answers to these questions illustrate a paradoxical dynamic in monastic journeys that cover a broad historical scope from the earliest monastic writers to contemporary sources Monastic Journey to India M. Basil Pennington, 1999-03-01 The Life of the Vows Thomas Merton, 2012-09-01 As novice master of the Cistercian Abbey of Our Lady of Gethsemani in Kentucky Thomas Merton presented weekly conferences to familiarize his charges with the meaning and purpose of the vows they aspired to undertake In this setting he offered a thorough exposition of the theological canonical and above all spiritual dimensions of the vows Merton set the vows firmly in the context of the anthropological moral soteriological and ecclesial dimensions of human Christian and monastic life He addressed such classical themes of Christian morality as the nature of the human person and his acts the importance of justice in relation to the Passion of Christ to friendship and to love and self surrender as the key to grace prayer and the vowed life Merton's words on these topics clearly spring from a committed heart and often flow with the soaring intensity of style that we have come to expect in his more enthusiastic prose The texts of these conferences represent the longest and most systematically organized of any of numerous series of conferences that Merton presented during the decade of his mastership They may be the most directly pastoral work Merton ever wrote

Secular Monasticism Jane Fitz-Gibbon, Andrew Fitz-Gibbon, 2012-09 Like an underground river the monastic tradition keeps on resurging in a host of unexpected times and places Secular Monasticism A Journey describes one of its most recent incarnations The founders and members of the Lindisfarne Community share with us their bold attempt to be a secular monastic religious order open to the exigencies of the contemporary world Age old wisdom once again reveals its perennial relevance in helping us learn how to be followers of Christ in God's today Brother John Taiz In the first five pages I thought of ten people I know who should read this book young people old people all people tired of taken for granted spirituality Devour this book Let it help you dream up a way of joining or creating a micro community of prayer and action that frees you to experiment in following the ways of Christ That's what these folks have done This story helps us imagine ourselves out of the boxes and buildings Christianity has become The Rev Dr Dori Baker Scholar in Residence The Fund for Theological Education Lindisfarne Community has graciously accepted God's call to dance with the radical and sometimes wearying changes of our time. Like the Celts they find meaning in their ongoing spiritual evolution through poetry and story through a willingness to navigate the waters of the soul while remaining fiercely loyal to the good earth that bore us and nurtures us. Like the Celts this family of secular monastics hungers more for mystical union with the Divine Mystery than for any trappings of earthly renown or success.

Carl McColman, author and blogger from the foreword Forms of Devotion Everett Ferguson, 1999. First published in 1999. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informal company. Biblica et Apocrypha, orientalia, ascetica Elizabeth A. Livingstone, 1993. Papers presented at the Eleventh International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford 1991. See also Studia Patristica 24, 26, 27, and 28. The successive sets of Studia Patristica contain papers delivered at the International Conferences on Patristic Studies which meet for a week once every four years in Oxford. They are held under the aegis of the Theology Faculty of the University. Members of these conferences come from all over the world and most offer papers. These range over the whole field, both East and West, from the second century to a section on the Nachleben of the Fathers. The majority are short papers dealing with some small and manageable point; they raise and sometimes resolve questions about the authenticity of documents, dates of events, and such like, and some unveil new texts. The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends. The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject.

Finding Home Dennis Bryan Alban Berk, 2013. A Monastic Vision for the 21st Century Patrick Hart, 2006. An ancient lifestyle which has been adapted, renewed, and is still being followed today, monasticism appears to some outside it as a quaint anachronism and to others as the sanest of all ways of living. Can it survive in the post-post-modern world? A dozen insiders and outsiders, academics, clergy, laypersons, hermits, cenobites, poets, and writers offer their reflections on the future of the monastic life of prayer and community. Contributing their insights are Michael Casey, Kathleen Norris, Lawrence Cunningham, Terrence Kardong, Bonnie Thurston, John Eudes Bamberger, Joan Chittister, Mary Margaret Funk, Gal Fitzpatrick, Francis Kline, Daniel Coughlin, Robert Morneau, Miriam Pollard, and Bernardo Olivera.

Community of the Transfiguration Paul R. Dekar, 2008-02-01. In the 1930s German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer anticipated the restoration of the church after the coming second world war through a new kind of monasticism, a way of life of uncompromising adherence to the Sermon on the Mount in imitation of Christ. Since then the renewal of Christian monasticism has become a great spiritual movement. Imbued with a love for God and neighbor and with a healthy self-love, people are going to monasteries to deepen their relationship with God, to pray, and to find peace. While some monastic institutions are suffering a decline in traditional vocations, many Christians are exploring monastic lifestyles. This book introduces The Community of the Transfiguration in Australia, the story of a new monastic community and an inspiring source of hope for the world at another time of spiritual, social, and ecological crisis.
