Monde Francais:

The Mainstreaming of the Extreme Right in France and Australia Aurélien Mondon, 2016-03-09 What has led to the recent revival of the extreme right in Western democracies such as France and Australia and what impact has their success had on mainstream politics What shift has taken place in recent times as ideas and groups that once were considered marginal and undemocratic have come to play an important part in mainstream politics This book addresses these key questions by examining the resurgence of the extreme right in France and Australia and explores the history of right wing groups and their relationship with and impact on mainstream politics This compelling study on the rise of right wing parties in two countries with different histories but similar experiences of how mainstream parties campaigned and reacted to the changing political landscape presents a fascinating comparison of the history and political impact of ethno exclusivist and right wing populist politics in liberal democracies A detailed and thorough comparative analysis of parties such as the Front National and One Nation and the mainstreaming of their discourse by prominent leaders like John Howard and Nicolas Sarkozy offers new insights on the rise of the contemporary extreme right and how these groups and the ideas they represent have become increasingly mainstream and perhaps even hegemonic in the current political state Muslim and Catholic Experiences of National Belonging in France Carol A. Ferrara, 2024-09-05 How do experiences of national identity and belonging differ for French Muslims and Catholics respectively What can these differences tell us about the causes and dynamics of minority marginalization in plural secular societies To address these questions Carol Ferrara draws upon extensive ethnographic fieldwork across France within spaces of religious education and interfaith dialogue illustrating the inequities between Muslim and Catholic citizens in opportunities for national belonging political and civic engagement and institution building This reexamination of Muslim exclusion against the backdrop of Catholic inclusion calls into question popular explanations for minority marginalization especially those that blame non adherence to French Republican principles or the exclusionary power of secular discourse Instead Ferrara argues that the boundaries of French belonging are policed by francit a tacit national imaginary ideal type that draws upon and reproduces national cognitive biases and undermines the French republican values of secularism equality liberty and fraternity Given the central role of francit in the politics of belonging Ferrara suggests that paths toward greater pluralism in France and beyond lie in the reframing of national identity narratives and reimagining the inclusive potential of secular democratic values The French Review James Frederick Mason, Hélène Harvitt, 1930 Charlin's French course.
